INSTRUCTOR'S PERSONAL STATEMENT

Our schools function more efficiently when the principal, as an instructional leader, implements strong instructional planning and maintains a healthy balance between building management and instructional leadership. The principal should monitor the culture and atmosphere of the school while also monitoring and adjusting campus resources, collecting appropriate and valued assessment data, overseeing safety protocols, and collaborating closely with teachers and staff. Students and staff need a safe environment where they are all invited to share their ideas, take risks, collaborate with others, and maintain an ongoing "growth mindset." This is how we truly maximize learning and engagement. This continuous school improvement process will be the focus of our course. I look forward to learning with you.

MODE OF INSTRUCTIONAL DELIVERY

This course will use an online blended delivery mode with 15% of the learning in five in-person class sessions, & 85% in online discussion format through the TAMUCT Canvas System.

On-Line Discussions, Activities, and In-Person Class Sessions (SLO# 1-4) (30 pts)

Each student will be responsible for participation in five on-line discussions and activities (via Canvas) related to the following areas below. Discussions & Activities are each worth 6 points (see calendar). The Collaborative Participation rubric is used to assess participation.

Topics for Discussion Boards include:

- Resource Allocation/Investigation
Our dialogue will be based on two texts. The Strategic School: Making the Most of People, Time and Money and The Principal's Guide to School Budgeting. These texts will focus on the development, monitoring, and management of school funds.
- Communicating with the Public/Media, School Security, Emergency Planning
We will address the communication practices with the public and the media as well as school security and emergency planning.
- Difficult Conversations and Managing Personnel Resources
Students will discuss the processes for working with teachers under difficult circumstances. Discussions will reference: Difficult Conversations: How to Discuss What Matters Most. This text will analyze the processes and successful approaches to having difficult conversations with teachers and school stakeholders.

Budget Planning Analysis/Plan (SLO# 2-3) (20 pts)

Each student will read The Principal's Guide to School Budgeting (Sorenson & Goldsmith, 2018). Then, each student will interview his/her principal (or district administrator if available) about your district and campus processes for budgeting and fiscal management. Identify specific budgetary needs for your school. Develop an APA-style paper (3-5 pages, double-spaced, no title page, 12-pt. Arial font) which includes introductory information about identified problems and innovation implementation at your school, a description of the action plan you are funding, an analysis of your findings about the budget, and a conclusion concerning your next steps. If you work in the same school with a classmate, you are each to identify your own issues or school areas of improvement.

Media/Crisis Communications Response Activity (SLO# 4-5) (15 pts)

Students will effectively respond to a Media/Crisis situation by drafting an emergency response statement to help support the campus principal in addressing the media and community stakeholders (400-600 words). This emergency response message will consider the basic guidelines of a press briefing as well as the critical points, pitfalls, and absolutes when dealing with the media. (assessment: written product rubric)

Emergency Preparedness Analysis (SLO# 5) (15 pts)

Based on your learning concerning school safety and emergency planning and preparedness, develop an emergency preparedness analysis for your current school setting. Consult with your principal and any other appropriate resources about current district and campus security plans and any issues that need to be addressed. Utilizing course material, text evidence, and instructor feedback provided in class, the student will analyze the emergency preparedness of his/her current school (3-4 pages, double-spaced, no title page, 12-pt. Arial font). Based on that analysis, the student will identify ways to improve the school's emergency plan. (assessment: written product rubric)

Mentor Consultations/Reflections of Difficult Conversations (SLO# 1-4) (10 pts)

Principal mentors are in a pivotal position to guarantee the success of the School Leadership Candidate by providing coaching support in the school setting. Your mentor consultation is facilitated by the student: set agenda, set meeting time and location, interview principal using focusing questions specific to their experiences having difficult conversations. How does your mentor prepare for a difficult conversation? What tools does your principal use when having difficult conversations? How was a difficult conversation/situation handled in the past? What would they have done differently? Does your principal have any recommendations for you? Be sure to include your own reflections of the consultation. Consultation/Reflection should be 2-4 pages, double-spaced, no title page, 12-pt. Arial font. (assessment: written product rubric)

Beginning in EDLD 5300, each student in the program will complete an ongoing analysis of personal strengths and challenges related to the state-identified school leadership standards and skills (19TAC §241.15). Utilizing the reflective FIT2LEAD format, students will share their own "read" and that of their mentor principal related to the state principal standards studied in EDLD 5342 during the semester. Additionally, the student, the mentor, and both instructors will assess discrete leadership skills using the SCHOOL LEADERSHIP COMPETENCY INVENTORY. A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html>].
