COURSE INFORMATION

Course Overview and description

The purpose of this course is to introduce and advance the technical and musical skill of the performer through the individual study of classical piano literature, theory, and technique. The lessons are scheduled once per week for 60 minutes.

Course Objective or Goal

The goal of individual private lessons is to advance the technical and musical skill of the individual performer through the study and performance of piano literature and technique. The semester's literature will be selected after an individual needs assessment is made, during which the student's performance level will be determined. Required minimum assignments will be determined by each instructor.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Proficiency through technique and pedagogy

- Knowledge of appropriate standard literature
- Knowledge of preparation and performance of appropriate standard repertoire

Required Materials

Repertoire for study is normally assigned at the first lesson. Students should expect to purchase the music they study unless they already own it in a reliable edition.

1. Assigned music
2. Metronome
3. Handouts
4. Pencil and eraser

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Practice

Students are expected to practice daily. Consistency is key. What you put into lessons directly corresponds to what you get out of them. If you devote a portion of every day to individual practice, you will improve. In order to receive a passing grade, you must come to lessons prepared and show you have made demonstrable progress throughout the semester. You will be tested on your progress every semester, so it is in your best interest to practice consistently and scrupulously.

Each week the instructor will assign material for you to practice during the week. You will begin the next week's lesson by playing through the assigned material. If the instructor passes you on the material, you will receive new material to prepare for the next lesson. If the instructor does not pass you, you must continue to practice that material until the instructor deems it passable. It is in your best interest to consistently practice the material to a passable level, as lessons can easily become monotonous if we get stuck on the same material.

Practice time is different for different people. You are responsible for determining the amount of practice time needed to prepare your material.

Always remember that consistency is the key to healthy musical progress.

Attendance

Regular on-time attendance is necessary and expected. Please be right on time for your lesson in case another student has a lesson before or after you.

If you absolutely must miss a lesson, be sure to inform the instructor in advance of the lesson in question. Each absence will lower the final grade according to the point system below (see "GRADING"). The only exception is if the absence is deemed legitimate per TAMUCT policy (i.e. illness or family emergency).

If a student misses a lesson, it will not be made up and you will lose both the attendance and preparedness points. If the instructor misses a lesson, a make-up lesson will be scheduled.

TARDINESS

If you are late to lesson, it will result in a loss of 1 point per minute.

SWAPPING SYSTEM

If you must miss your lesson but do not want to forfeit your lesson for that week, you may contact another student using and ask to swap times for that week. If both students agree to swap times, please email the instructor to notify him of the swap in advance of the lesson to be swapped. Provided you attend, a swapped lesson will not count as an absence. In order to respect each other's schedules, please only swap lessons up to twice per semester.

Juries and Recital

- Midterm Jury

Music majors who are selected by the instructor will perform a Midterm Jury. The Midterm Jury will take place at the midpoint of the semester. The student will perform the piece they plan to play for Student Recital (see below). The piece will be assigned to them in lessons by their instructor. The Midterm Jury is required but not graded. A faculty panel will provide feedback on the student's performance. The date for the Spring 2022 Midterm Jury will be announced later in the semester.

- Student Recital

Music majors who were selected to play a Midterm Jury will perform in Student Recital (with the exception of first-semester freshmen by instructor discretion) in the lieu of Midterm Exam. Students will perform a piece assigned to them in lessons by their instructor. Two weeks before the Student Recital, students must submit their forms of what repertoire will be played (or an exemption, if applicable). Student Recital performances are given letter grades by a faculty panel and will count as 10% of the final grade for lessons.

Performances will take place during Student Recital class throughout the second half of the semester. Each student will be assigned to a specific date; the performance dates for spring 2022 will be announced later in the semester.

- Final Jury
Music majors who are selected to perform in Student Recital will perform a Final Jury. It will take place at the end of the semester. A faculty panel will provide feedback on the student's performance. It counts as 10% of their final grade for lessons. In other words, the Final Jury will alter the final grade by one letter. The date for the Final Jury will be announced later in the semester.

* Requirements: technical studies (scales, arpeggios) and étude(s)

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].
