Email: Leyla.orudzheva@tamuct.edu

Office Hours:

Mode of instruction and course access:
This course is a 100% online course utilizing the A&M-Central Texas Canvas Learning Management System [https://tamuct.instructure.com] for class communications, content distribution, and assessments. Students will access all course materials (except textbook), assignments, student-instructor and student-student communication, activities, quizzes, and resource links via the Course web site and Library eReserves.

Student-instructor interaction:
For questions related to course requirements, syllabus, group project, and subject content, I encourage students to interact with me by asking questions on the “Course Q&A” Discussion Forum so my answers can also benefit the rest of the class. Remember that if you have a question, some of your classmates might have similar questions and would most likely be interested in the answers. Hence, students should “Subscribe” to this discussion forum to be notified of new messages.

TAMUCT Canvas messaging system is the preferred communication method for all individual questions (e.g., individual student’s grades, request of extensions in case of a documented emergency, issues with group members, other personal matters you may want to discuss, etc.). I check messages regularly and usually respond within 24h during weekdays (48h during weekend and holidays).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

BUSI 3344  8 Week Online
Individual Assignments

1. Syllabus Quiz
2. Students Introduction Discussion #1
3. Module Forum Discussions #2-4:
   Module forum discussions are designed to engage online conversations amongst students about module topics. This is an essential component of this course, as students typically share knowledge derived from their specific perspectives, ideas, and experiences. Forum discussions rely on the principles of learner-learner interaction to deepen your understanding of the material. Instructors rarely intervene in discussions, but every post is read and graded according to their appropriateness for that subject, degree of accuracy, and the extent to which a post/response furthers the conversation.
   To receive a maximum grade for each forum discussion, students must post their Initial response & Respond to a classmate(s), draw upon relevant course and external resources to support their statements, and cite them appropriately:
   Additional details along with Grading Rubrics will be provided in Canvas.

4. Cultural Interview Report
   The cultural interview must be conducted with a person who has a different nationality than yours, or with a person who originates from a different nation. Assignment guidelines will be provided in Canvas.

5. Exams (2 @ 150 points each)
   Two examinations are required for your final grade. Students must complete at least two exams which cover textbook material, all supplemental resources provided in the module folders (e.g. audio/videos, lectures, readings, case studies, discussions, etc.). The exams ensure that you have read, listened to, and understood the materials provided, as this substitutes for an in-class lecture. Three exams will be available:
   1. Exam 1 covers the first half of the course.
   2. Exam 2 covers the second half of the course.
   3. The Final comprehensive exam covers the entire semester.

   Note: Students are welcome to take all three exams, in which case the lowest grade will be dropped. If a student is satisfied with her/his first two exam grades, s/he can skip the final exam. In all cases, the lowest of the three exam grades will be dropped. Exams will be accessible on CANVAS and contain multiple-choice and true/false questions.
Group assessment

Students are assigned to groups at the end of the 1st week. Your group will produce three interconnected international business assignments: each building on the previous assignment (details found in the guidelines).

Group assignments create opportunities to collaborate with your peers and develop your professional, analytical, operational, and project management skills. Working with colleagues who have diverse work experiences, cultural backgrounds, areas of expertise, and educational credentials offer opportunities to fine tune your communication skills and negotiation competences. Indeed, project deadlines for online (international) collaboration simulates modern work conditions that you will likely face in your career. When you successfully navigate this set of projects, you should know more about the global business environment, how to plan an international entry strategy, and how to more efficiently lead yourself and others in your team.

The three group assignments in this course reinforce skills relevant both to group and to individual work. These skills include the ability to break complex tasks into parts and steps, how plan and manage time, how refine understanding through plenary discussion and explanation, how to give and receive feedback on performance, how challenge assumptions, and how develop stronger communication skills. Ultimately, class assignments facilitate development of critical group project skills which are in high demand on the job market. For example, group projects help students develop skills specific to collaborative efforts relevant to global business settings.

Initial Country Research Report

The initial country research report forms the foundation for the final country report. There will be two broad topics to be researched related to trade and monetary environment, and to international opportunity and market entry into a foreign country. This is the first part of your three-part assignment. Detailed instructions will be provided in Canvas.

Students will be given an opportunity to peer review an Initial report done by other groups to learn from their peers & to earn extra credit.

Final Country Group Presentation

Each group will present their country group report online in one consolidated video file. Groups are expected to make a professional presentation highlighting significant findings from the final country report. Each group member is expected to present a part of the project. More detailed instructions will be published in CANVAS.

Final Country Group Report

The final country group report builds on the initial country report. By the end of the semester, your group will provide a full business report regarding the entry of a new product in your selected country. This report includes two major components: a country analysis (including an analysis of political, legal, economic, monetary, trade, and cultural environments) and a proposed plan for new product entry (including an analysis highlighting the challenges and opportunities of doing business in your chosen country, a description of your product, a competitor analysis, and an entry strategy). More detailed instructions will be published in CANVAS.
Peer review of groups
Students’ involvement in team activities will be evaluated by peers using a collective Peer Evaluation process. Each team project component will be accompanied with a collective peer evaluation. Based on the grade awarded by peers, a student will either receive the full points associated with the team grade on a relevant team assignment or only a portion of the points.
NOTE 1: No later than 24 hours after a peer evaluation due date, any team member may request that the instructor arbitrate team ratings. If arbitration is requested, and conducted, the decision of the instructor will be final. The Peer Evaluation will be submitted with each of the team assignments.
NOTE 2: A student not putting effort in the team’s work can be “fired” from his or her team by his/her team members and after the instructor’s approval. Such student will have to complete the remaining team project parts on his own with a maximum possible grade capped at 79%. Furthermore, a student fired from a team won’t be able to earn points for the Team presentation.
Details about peer review requirements and a template for Collective Peer Evaluation will be published on CANVAS.

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence... or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Behavioral Intervention
Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/bat.html]. If a person’s behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5800.
