COURSE DATES, MODALITY, AND LOCATION
Student-instructor interaction:

- Mode of instruction and course access - This is an ONLINE course – there will be NO “official” face-to-face classroom time. This class meets online during the 8-week semester that begins June 6, 2022 and ends July 29, 2022. The A&M-Central Texas Canvas Learning Management System (Canvas) [https://tamuct.instructure.com] will be our primary resource for the class information. The course syllabus, schedule, supplemental readings, class announcements, power point slides, learning modules, homework assignments, exams and other course related documents will be posted on Canvas.

  Each student is responsible for the posted material and should check Canvas at least daily for updates. The course outline in this syllabus shows the basic schedule for the semester. Students enrolled in this course should expect a more “accelerated” pace for the course due to the course only being 8 weeks rather than 16 weeks long. There will be several assignments due each week.

- Student-instructor interaction - Please send all course related correspondence through Canvas “Inbox”. Please use TAMUCT email only when Canvas is not available (or for non-course related correspondence). I check email several times a day during the week and at least once during the weekends. I will attempt to respond within 24 hours Mon-Thurs and within 48 hours on Fri through Sun. Please do not hesitate to contact me via Canvas Inbox or TAMUCT email, if there are any personal problems or challenges that are hindering your regular progress in the course.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Reading Assignments
All assigned chapters will be used as a basis for canvas course contents. Students are expected to study the required chapters and go through review questions after each chapter in every week.

Students are required to check Announcement page of Canvas on a regular basis to get any updates regarding the course assignments and due dates.

Students are required to complete one midterm exam, one final exam, four class tests, five Canvas discussion questions, and four homework assignments. The topic of all exams will be declared in the Canvas course website. Canvas discussions are counted towards class participation points for this course. Students are required to update their canvas settings (Account > Settings > Notifications) to allow notifications to send right away for all course-related activities.

Class Tests
There will be four class tests for this online course. The class tests will be conducted online through Canvas course website. Each class test will be worth 50 points. The class tests will be timed and once started, must be completed at the given time.

Exams
There will be one midterm and one final exam. The midterm exam will cover Chapters 1-6 and worth 200 points, and the final exam will cover chapters 7-12 and worth 200 points. The final exam will NOT be comprehensive for this course. All chapters covered after the midterm will be considered for final exam.

Assignments
Four homework assignments related to IT Security and Risk Management will be given to the students. The due dates of these assignments will be posted in canvas course portal. Each assignment will be worth 50 points. The assignment grading rubric will be provided in Canvas Course Portal.

Canvas Discussion
As this is an online course, there is NO lecture or other face-to-face interaction. To simulate the class environment, there will be multiple discussion questions throughout the semester. You will be expected to participate by posting an initial post of your own and (usually) respond to at least two other student’s posts (at a minimum). The discussion questions will be posted at the beginning of the week and you will have until the Sunday of the same week to complete.

NOTE: There may be more than one question in some weeks.

Canvas Discussion posts are worth 40 points. There will be at five discussion questions for the course. If the quality of your postings is not sufficient, the points will not be earned. You are expected to contribute to the class discussions in meaningful ways. That means:

- Contributing new and relevant information to the course discussion and from readings of the textbooks;
- Commenting in a positive manner;
- Building on the remarks of your fellow students – i.e. improving upon what someone else said;
- Posing questions of your fellow students; and sharing quotes, websites, and other supplementary information;
• Demonstrating practical application of the week’s key concepts from your professional/personal experience;
• “Substantive” does not include “I agree,” “Great point,” or “You’re wonderful” type postings. These types of postings are examples of positive “teaming” and are fine but not by themselves. They do not add depth or breadth to the discussion. A “substantive” initial posting should include:
  o Your thesis (main point)
  o Your supporting arguments
  o A reference to class or outside material to support your thesis o An example from your experiences to support your thesis.

In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WCONline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor by making an appointment via WCONline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas
Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2]. Anonymous referrals are accepted.
