Course Purpose
This writing instructive course builds on the conceptual knowledge of SOWK Research Statistics. This course focuses on the application of these concepts to social work research. Students will develop a SOCIAL WORK research topic, develop a literature review, research question, and develop a research proposal with appropriate methods and analytic tools (statistics). Students will also learn the purpose and methods of evaluation research. Students should learn and be prepared to apply ethical principles of social work research and evaluation of practiced, broadly defined. This is a writing instructive course and sound writing is an important part of the grade.

Prerequisites: SOWK 4300 & SOWK 4320

Nature of Course

Writing for Social Work Research serves as a follow-up to SOWK 4320 Research Methods & Statistics with a focus on professional writing for social work research. Specifically, this is a writing instructive course that builds on the conceptual knowledge of SOWK 4320 and the rest of the social work curriculum by having students apply that knowledge to facilitate their understanding, interpretation, and application of research related to social work and social work practice. The focus in this course is on the evaluation of practice, critical evaluation of published research, and the design and completion of a professional social work research proposal. Program evaluation in social work, a form of applied research, will also be covered. Drafting of sections for the research proposal is required. Failure to submit drafts in a timely way will negatively affect your grade.

_The following course has infused curriculum that prepares students with the necessary casework skills required by 45CFR 1356.60 Title IV-E Training Program._

Teaching Method

The primary teaching approaches in this course will be collaborative and active (applied) learning. Material in the course will be presented primarily through lecture, interactive class discussions, and student generated discussions based on projects. Students will present and must be able to work on applied research activities. Students are expected to demonstrate initiative through project-based learning. Course resources will be placed on Canvas. These will include web page links (pages) files, and brief recorded videos (pages).

You will need to read, prepare material, and discuss your work in class or you will be disappointed with your final grade for the course. This is a writing intensive class and requires that drafts of sections for the written assignments be submitted prior to the final version. Lack of attention to keeping up, discussing progress on the development of the research proposal, and/or delay in the submission of drafts is likely to negatively affect the grade. An important part of the learning process is writing drafts, discussion, feedback, and use of the feedback process. Failure to respond to comments on drafts may also affect your grade on subsequent assignments. You should expect to be an active part of the learning process.

WebEx meetings will be held infrequently, but if need synchronously. Students who are on a WebEx link should be in an appropriate place and dressed appropriately. The screen should be on at least 50% of the time. Under no circumstances should a student be on a live video from a moving vehicle. Students who violate this policy may be asked to leave.

Program Mission
The mission of the Bachelor of Social Work Program at Texas A&M University - Central Texas is to prepare high quality graduates for entry-level generalist social work practice and advanced education through education that is delivered in a rigorous and student-centered learning environment that promotes professional behavior, values and ethics, human and community well-being, respect for human diversity, and a global perspective, and is guided by a person-in-environment framework, knowledge based on scientific inquiry, and social work competencies in support of the college and university missions.

The social work program at TAMUCT uses a generalist framework for practice. The program definition of generalist practice as:

Work with individuals, families, groups, communities and organizations in a variety of social work and host settings. Generalist practitioners view clients and client systems from a strength’s perspective in order to recognize, support, and build upon the innate capabilities of all human beings. They use a professional problem solving process to engage, assess, broker services, advocate, counsel, educate, and organize with and on behalf of clients and client systems. In addition, generalist practitioners engage in community and organizational development. Finally, generalist practitioners evaluate service outcomes in order to continually improve the provision and quality of services most appropriate to client needs.

Generalist social work practice is guided by the NASW Code of Ethics and is committed to improving the well-being of individuals, families, groups, communities and organizations and furthering the goals of social justice. (Source: BPD web page)

Program Framework

The Social Work Program curriculum is rooted in a framework established by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). Specifically, the program endeavors to develop social workers who promote human and community well-being by being able to demonstrate the following 9 competencies upon graduation:

- Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
- Competency 2: Advance Human Rights and Social, Racial, Economic, and Environmental Justice
- Competency 3: Engage Anti-Racism, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (ADEI) in Practice
- Competency 4: Engage in Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice
- Competency 5: Engage in Policy Practice
- Competency 6: Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
- Competency 7: Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
- Competency 8: Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Competency 9: Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Each competency has specific, measurable practice behaviors that help students and their professors determine if the competency has been achieved. (CSWE EPAS 2022)

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

The following activities will be completed during the semester:

1. Research Proposal: Students are expected to complete a professional research proposal as a process for evaluating the relevant course competencies demonstrated by the student. The proposal should be professionally written (this is a writing intensive course) and follow APA format. The final research proposal in its entirety is generally between 16-25 pages in length—which, when complete, includes the following:
Part I: Introduction/Statement of the Problem: Every good piece of research or research proposal begins with a clear statement of the problem and why this is an important topic to study. To a considerable degree making this case clearly depends on a prior review of the literature in the area. This is where you must lay out the what, why, and how of what you are proposing. This piece will help to frame your proposal. You will also need to include the significance of what you are proposing, especially as it relates to social work. In other words, why is this important for anyone to know and what is its relevance to social work? You need to consider your audience in this section. Who will be the primary readers of this (other than the instructor). This section needs to be clear, target your audience, and precede your literature review. This section needs to indicate the purpose of your research. Ultimately you must answer the – So What? – question here. This should clearly identify a connection to social work and what you propose to do.

Part II: Literature Review: This portion of the research proposal introduces the audience to the proposed topic in depth and explains what is known and not known about the topic at hand. Key terms should be clearly defined. Questions like what purpose will it serve the field of social work and/or Society may be addressed. What gap in the knowledge and/or practice will this study serve to fill? To answer these questions, the literature review should include a comprehensive and balanced review of the available literature on the student’s research topic. It should begin with a description of the prevalence of the problem and include literature that positively and negatively relates to the student’s topic of research. It may, depending on the type of research include at least one theory or perspective that is related to the student’s topic. This is important since your methods will need to connect to the literature and prevailing theories or perspectives. The review should conclude with statement summarizing the purpose, research or guiding questions, and hypothesis (es) or research questions. If you are doing program evaluation, at least part of this review must be to describe the program and its objectives. The literature review should serve as the foundation to the structure of the entire proposal, and variables that are to be operationalized should be connected to the review. In this you should demonstrate that you are familiar with your topic. Extensive quotations are to be avoided as they affect the flow. Use paraphrasing – not quotes. It also needs to include a summary of the review – not just a description of articles.

Literature Review Assignment Requirements: The submitted Literature Review must incorporate all components as outlined in the Literature Review grading Rubric that is attached to this syllabus. Further detail will be provided and discussed during class. This rubric is only a guide, it is not a fill in the blank question answering.

Literature Review Submission Requirements: A draft of the Literature review is required before the final version is submitted. The completed literature review must be typed with 12-point, Times New Roman font, double-spaced and 1-inch margins. Citations should be used appropriately. Excessive quotations may not be used in the literature review (no more than 2). Any quotations should be short, essential to make a point, and succinct. A completed reference list following APA 6th edition guidelines must also be submitted with the completed Literature Review. An abstract must also be included along with an APA 6th edition cover page. The introduction should be included before the literature review and a clear transition should be provided between the two. The body of the Literature Review should be roughly 8-10 pages in length (this is only a guide).

Part II: Methods Section Review: A draft of the methods section is required before submitting the final methods section. Where the literature review serves to express to the audience why you are proposing to conduct the planned research, the methods section serves to provide the how. It is the frame to your proposal structure. Here you have some flexibility in designing your study. You may choose to follow the traditional empirical model, a qualitative approach, mixed methods, evaluation of practice or program, or even historical research. Whatever methods you choose, they must conform to professional models for that type of research. In this regard, the methods section should include a description of the intended methods, relevant participants in the study, inclusion and exclusion criteria for the participants, and the intended sampling or data collection method. It should include a description of any measures that are going to be used and the established reliability and validity of these measures. It should include the study design and the procedures for the study. The proposal must also include proposed method(s) for analyzing your data (yes statistics is included). While the methods section generally does not include a description of the present study and hypothesis or research question, for the purposes of this paper, this information should be restated at the beginning of the section. You will need to address how you get your sample population for the research. You will have to address IRB approval and if you are using an established measure, you may have to purchase the measures from a company or request permission to use them. So how will you get your measures? You should also identify any limitations that affect the generalizability of your research. Note: if you are doing research that directly affects human subjects you must reference the IRB process (although you don’t need to make an application).

Methodology Assignment Requirements: The submitted Methods Section must incorporate all components as outlined in the Methods Section grading Rubric that is attached to this syllabus. Further detail will be provided in class. Samples and guides will be provided and discussed in class and on Canvas.

Methodology Submission Requirements: Completed Methods Section must be typed with 12 point, Times New Roman font, 1-inch margins and double spaced. Citations should be used appropriately and follow APA 6th edition guidelines. Excessive quotations may not be used (no more than 2). A completed reference list following APA guidelines must also be submitted with the Methods Section. An APA 6th edition cover page must be included. The Methods Section should be about 5 pages in length.

Part III: Discussion Section Review: A draft of the methods section is required as a part of submitting the final paper. The discussion section of the research proposal follows the methodology section and serves to summarize for your audience what was done. It includes suggestions for future studies as well as limitations of the proposed study. The discussion section puts the finishing touches to the proposal structure. Included in this section should be a brief restatement of some of the relevant literature on the research topic to demonstrate again the need for the research. It should include any ethical issues or implications of your research. It should include the strengths and limitations of your study. It should include implications for social work practice, policy, research, and education that can be anticipated as a result of your study’s completion. Also, while in reality the discussion section generally does not explicitly state a description of the present study, for the purposes of this paper, the student will briefly summarize this information. This section should also be thoroughly referenced according to APA 6th edition style. Generally there should not be much new literature here.

Discussion Assignment Requirements: The submitted Discussion Section must incorporate all components as outlined in the Discussion Section grading Rubric that is attached to this syllabus. Further detail will be provided in class.

Discussion Section Submission Requirements: Completed Discussion Section must be typed with 12 point, Times New Roman font, 1-inch margins and double-spaced. Citations should be used appropriately and follow APA 6th edition guidelines. Excessive quotations may not be used (no more than 1). A completed reference list following APA guidelines must also be submitted with the Methods Section. An APA 6th edition cover page must be included. The Discussion Section should be approximately 2-3 pages in length.
Part IV: Full Research Proposal: Part four of the research proposal includes a revision to the Literature Review, Methodology and Discussion sections, based on draft comments. The purpose of this submission is to allow students the opportunity to make corrections to the submitted components, fine tune writing skills, and create a clean, revised copy of the proposal that can be used in writing sample requests in future academic and professional pursuits.

2. Poster/Presentation: Students should prepare a poster identifying the major points you identified in your literature review and what is known about the subject. You should also explain what you hope to learn through your research. This poster should be presented/discussed in class. The proposal presentation serves to assess the social work competencies for this course. Students are expected to develop and give a professional presentation of their work. The presentation should highlight some of the existing research, why the student’s research is needed, the research study design, ethical issues, and the implications for social work. You are offered some creative freedom as to how best to get your point across. The use of electronic posters as a presentation medium is strongly encouraged.

Please note: If your schedule is such that you find it consistently difficult to arrive to class on time, remain for the full class, or arrive to class at all, it is advised that you find a course that would best meet your scheduling needs.

CLASS POLICIES

Class Policies

The following policies apply to all students enrolled in this course:

1. Students are not permitted to enter class more than ten (10) minutes late (or leave 10 minutes early without permission).
2. It is expected that all students will take care of personal affairs (i.e., get beverages, take care of phone calls, meeting with students and other professors, use the restroom, etc.) before class begins. Students who have a medical/physical condition for which they need to request an exception to this policy are advised to speak with the Disability Services Coordinator and/or discuss this with the professor to see if an exception can be granted.
3. Students are expected to display professional decorum at all times. This includes, but is not limited to, respecting classmates and the instructor. In this regard, it is expected that students will not speak to/hold conversations with/pass notes to other students, use cell phones, or engage in other types of unprofessional behaviors once class has begun. Talking during lecture, out of turn, or while other students are talking is disruptive to the learning environment, disrespectful to peers, and unprofessional in demeanor. Students are strongly encouraged to engage in discussion in a respectful and appropriate manner.

4. To support the academic learning environment, students are asked to refrain from sharing personal information in class that will not support/add significantly to the class discussion.

5. NO TECHNOLOGY IS PERMITTED DURING IN CLASS EXAMS, QUizzes, OR OTHER TYPES OF ASSIGNMENTS AS DEFINED BY THE PROFESSOR, UNLESS GIVEN SPECIFIC PERMISSION BY THE PROFESSOR. (This requirement is suspended while we are in an on-line environment). During such assignments, students may be asked to turn in cell phones to the professor, place bags beneath desk or to the side of class, or other request to minimize use of such technology. Students discovered to be using cell phones, ipads, e-readers, recording devices, etc. during assignments without expressed, written approval by the professor to do so will receive a zero (0) for the assignment and referred to Student Affairs for academic integrity concerns. Students warned against doing so once and found to do so again in this or any subsequent course will receive an F for the course in which the behavior was identified and referred to Student Affairs.

6. Students are NOT permitted to work collaboratively (together) on any assignment unless given EXPRESSED permission by the instructor to do so. This includes homework, take home quizzes, papers, etc. Failure to adhere to this policy can result in a zero (0) on the assignment and referral to Student Affairs for academic integrity concerns. This does not apply to the assigned group activities. All assignments must be turned in at the beginning of class on the day they are due unless indicated otherwise by the professor. The professor will explain to you when the beginning of class is for the course (for example: 10 minutes after the start of class, following the class greeting by the instructor, etc.). Late work will not be accepted or graded unless this has been discussed with and approved by the professor BEFORE the due date (not the due time) of the assignment. Being absent from class on a day when an assignment is due does NOT grant a student an extension to the due date: the student must still arrange to get that assignment turned in to the professor before class starts.
Allowing students to turn in assignments late for a grade is not fair to other students who get their work done on time, disrupts the grading process for the professors, and sends a message that such behavior is professionally “okay,” which it is not. This, as well as all other policies, will be held to strict code, and failure to adhere to this policy will result in a zero (0) for the assignment. This is inclusive of all assignments.

7. Unless otherwise noted, hard copies of papers must be submitted. Students should be prepared to submit electronic copies of any paper for class at the discretion of the instructor.

8. All papers submitted for grading MUST adhere to APA 7th edition standards unless otherwise stated by the professor. This means that all papers must, minimally, be: 1) typed, 2) double spaced, 3) use Times New Roman font, 4) use 12 point font, 5) include an APA style cover page, and 6) include in-text citations AND a reference page for ANY SOURCED INFORMATION (this includes information learned in current or previous classes, read online, learned during a personal communication, reviewed over email, read in a text-book, etc.). Further, all typed papers submitted in class MUST be stapled or clipped together (if too large for staple). It is not acceptable, nor professional, to hand in a paper that is not professionally bound (in academia, professionally bound means stapled or securely clipped together). Unless instructed to do so, submitting papers in folders, binders, etc. are not required and should be limited in use.

9. TAMU-CT expects all students to maintain high standards of personal and scholarly conduct and avoid any form of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (intentional or unintentional), copying another person's work, turning in someone else's work as your own, downloading material from the internet and inserting it into a paper as if it was your own work, taking ideas from classes or readings and putting them in a paper without citations/references, cheating on an examination or other academic work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. Any idea, even paraphrased ideas, used or borrowed must be given credit by showing the source with an appropriate citation and reference. Any student who violates class and/or university policies regarding Academic Honesty will be sanctioned according to the University and program guidelines. More information on university policies can be found at www.ct.tamus.edu/studentconduct. A copy of the University’s policy is also located at the end of this syllabus.

10. Additional & Important Note on Writing Assignments: All written assignments are expected to be the original work of the students. While paraphrasing and some direct quotations are permitted, it is expected this will be done within the context of your own analysis and synthesis of the information read. Paraphrasing is a skill of reading information and, using your own thoughts, summarizing the information in a way that supports the topic discussed. While the paraphrase involves your own thoughts, it originates from a source and that source is cited. Quoting is a matter of taking words, verbatim, from another source and restating them without, or with minimal, manipulation. Quotations are placed in quotation marks (“ ”) or placed in a block format within the text. Quoting does not involve analysis and synthesizing and, therefore, does not require critical thinking except when used appropriately to support (not substitute) an idea. Because of this, students are discouraged from using significant quotations as this limits your learning experience. Students found to excessively quote will be penalized. Students using words as their own without appropriately citing will be penalized – including failing the assignment and up to failing the course. Students found to have plagiarized (using words as your own without giving proper credit, whether paraphrasing or directly quoting) will also be referred to the Student Affairs. Therefore, it is VERY important that students take academic integrity in writing very seriously. If you are in doubt, it is always best to cite your source and/or speak with your professor for more guidance. The Writing Center, Library, and Owl Purdue are also resources that can help you. A copy of this statement is located at the end of this syllabus. You are required to acknowledge receipt and understanding regarding the policy for academic integrity in this course by signing and submitting the acknowledgement statement no later than the second (2\textsuperscript{nd}) week of class. Failure to do so will result in consultation with the professor, program faculty and/or Student Affairs and could limit your successful continuation in this course.

11. Class discussions, oral presentations, and written materials must adhere to professional standards of expression and conform to the style described by the American Psychological Association (APA, 2009). This includes avoidance of the use of language that degrades women, people of color, gays, lesbians, bisexuals, transgendered, and other diverse and at-risk populations. All students are expected to display the utmost respect for all people, regardless of differences.

12. Tests begin promptly on time. No test will be distributed after the first person has left the room.

Final Note Regarding Class Policies

The aforementioned policies are designed to create and foster a positive and rewarding learning environment for all students. Failure to adhere to the aforementioned class policies, as well as university policies, demonstrates a potential inability to conduct oneself professionally in the field of study. These policies are applicable throughout the program and, as such, students who consistently fail to comply with these policies will be considered inappropriate candidates for field placement and/or the degree of Bachelor of Social Work at TAMU-CT, as their behavior is considered inappropriate for a social work practitioner.

An assessment of student behavior as it relates to class policies, and overall decorum required throughout the TAMU-CT social work program and the University, is provided via the “Rubric for Assessing Professional Behaviors” (attached to this syllabus). Any student in this course found to perform below the standard requirements will be provided with a rubric outlining areas for concern. Failure to obtain scores of 3 or 4 in any of the 15 professional behavior areas listed in the rubric will limit a student’s ability to be assigned a field placement and/or can result in removal from a field placement. These behaviors, which align with the National Association of Social Workers (NASWs) core values and ethics, TAMU-CTs Code of Conduct, and the Social Work Program class policies, are considered the expected professional behaviors of social work interns and future generalist social workers and, therefore, are held to the strictest code.

Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Academic Integrity

Texas A&M University -Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student’s academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, working with others in an unauthorized manner, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student’s work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be referred to the university’s Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university’s standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

For more information regarding the Student Conduct process, [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html].

If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a report, [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=0].

University Writing Center

Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (TAMUCT) is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. This semester, the UWC is also offering online only hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students’ ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students’ texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WCOnline. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC and/or need any assistance with scheduling.

University Library

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 85,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library.

Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. For more information, please visit our Library website [http://tamuct.libguides.com/index].

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, who are exhibiting concerning behaviors, or individuals causing a significant disruption to our community, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/bat.html]. If a person’s behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND AGREEMENT FOR ACADEMIC INTEGRITY & ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION

SOWK 4321 Research II

All written assignments are expected to be the original work of the student. While paraphrasing and some direct quotations are permitted, it is expected this will be done within the context of your own analysis and synthesis of the information read. Paraphrasing is reading and, using your own thoughts, and summarizing information in a way that supports the topic discussed. Paraphrasing involves your own thoughts and that originate from a source that is cited. Quoting is a matter of taking words, verbatim, from another source and restating them without, or with minimal, manipulation. Quotations are placed in quotation marks (“”) or placed in a block format within the text. Quoting does not involve analysis and synthesizing and, therefore, does not require critical thinking except when used appropriately to support (not substitute) an idea. Students should not use significant quotations. Students found to excessively quote will be penalized. Students using words as their own without appropriately citing will be penalized – including failing the assigned project and/or the course.

Students found to have plagiarized (using words as your own without giving proper credit, whether paraphrasing or directly quoting) will also be referred to the Student Affairs. Therefore, it is VERY important to take academic integrity in writing very seriously. If you are in doubt, it is always best to cite your source and ask for more guidance. The Writing Center and Purdue OWL are also resources that can help you.

With regard to submitting assignments, all assignments must be turned in (received by the instructor) by the due date and time indicated to receive credit. Late work will not be accepted or graded unless this has been discussed with and approved by the professor BEFORE the due date (not the due time). Allowing students to turn in assignments late for a grade is not fair to other students who get their work done on time, disrupts the grading process for the professor, and sends a message that such behavior is professionally “okay,” which it is not. This, as well as all other policies related to assignment submission outlined in this syllabus will be held to strict code, and failure to adhere to this policy will result in a zero (0) for the assignment.

You are being asked to acknowledge receipt and understanding regarding the policy for academic integrity and assignment submission in this course no later than the 2nd week of class. Failure to do so will result in consultation with the professor and could inhibit your successful continuation in this course.
