Welcome to our Legal Environment of Business course!

As you may have experienced, or will soon see, the law impacts many aspects of business operations and our lives. I really look forward to helping you learn more about the legal environment of business this fall. Please feel free to ask questions about legal issues you may see in the news and want to understand more about. Also, feel free to ask questions after you have completed the course, as I still field questions from students I had many years ago!

Just as we have diverse opinions, we also have diverse life circumstances. I have worked hard to create a rigorous yet flexible course to respect those differences. As we explore the law, it can sometimes be confusing. For some, legal terminology is like a foreign language that may not be understood as quickly as it will be for others. The course design allows the student who struggles with some content yet is diligent and perseveres to earn an acceptable grade.

I do not always see the course the same way you do. If you see an improvement I could make in the structure or presentation of the material, please let me know. I want to avoid issues that interfere with your learning success.

In this syllabus, I provide as much information as possible about the course and my general expectations to put you in the best position to succeed. Additional information is available in our Canvas course. Please check out the “Approaching BUSI 3332” and the “Success Tips from Recent Students” documents in the “Modules” area of Canvas for more information/strategies to help you succeed. Please do not hesitate to reach out with questions or concerns, even if it’s late at night or on the weekend. That is why I'm here, and I do view my job as being available as much as possible to help!

COURSE DATES, MODALITY, ACCESS AND LOCATION

Objectives Disclaimer: The above learning objectives represent the main focus areas in this course, however assignment or exam questions require more specific and detailed answers within these main focus areas. Class discussions, assignments, the text and all supplementary materials in the module chapter lessons, for example audio lectures and articles, are fair game for assignments and exams and are beneficial for both general knowledge and exam success because they help you learn the complex concepts and practice the specific skills within each focus area.

Required Reading and Textbook(s):

1. Text
2. Other Instructional Materials:

Equipment
A properly configured computer (as described above in the “Technology Requirements” section). Speakers or a headset (to listen to audio/video files). Reliable Internet access, MS Word, Excel, and PowerPoint, Adobe Acrobat Reader. For exam proctoring: Web camera, speaker, and microphone (or headset). Chrome web browser with the Proctorio custom plug in.

Instructional Software
I use normal power point slides and audio Canvas presentations of my chapter lectures, which are posted in Canvas in the relevant module. As well, I use Excel files, YouTube videos and website articles for instructional purposes.

I provide substantial information beyond the text through audio lectures, PowerPoints, and other resources. I assess this information on quizzes and exams. You may access it by clicking on “Modules” on the left side of Canvas for desktop computer viewing or via the dropdown at the top right of your mobile device. As such, it is highly beneficial when you are actively engaged in the learning process and taking notes. Taking notes, particularly handwritten, has been proven in research to improve knowledge retention. I have provided some resources on notetaking in the "Tips for BUSI 3332 Success" folder in Canvas's "Modules" area. On a personal note, I have been taking an online course with many videos, and taking notes has helped my level of engagement. If I don’t take notes, my mind wanders, and I often have to rewatch the video. I would suggest printing the PDF slide document that outlines some key concepts for you and then making notes in the available white space, so you have both the slides and notes together. However, notetaking is also a personal process - do what is comfortable for you!

Reference Guide for Professional Writing (optional)

- Proper citation, both in-text and references, are a critical part of academic writing.
- Proper citation involves diligent research of relevant previous work from credible sources, accurate representation of those credible sources, and proper attribution to those sources (i.e. giving credit where credit is due).
- Hence, in this course you are encouraged to properly cite your sources, in-text and in a reference list, for all assignments. The APA guideline listed above will help you generate a consistent format of citations and references. For online help formatting your citations, consult the Owl at Purdue.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The learning activities and assessments below measure the applicable Course-level Outcomes (CLOs) stated above and the bi-weekly Module Learning Outcomes (MLOs) stated at the start of each module. Click on Modules to find each of the eight modules in this course. In some instances, a particular outcome may be assessed by multiple methods, for example, homework as well as an exam question.

General Course Requirements:

- ✓ Always cite the source(s) of the information you use in your assignments and discussions. APA-citation style is encouraged. The 7th edition of the APA manual is the most current edition.
- ✓ All files must be submitted in a .doc or .docx format.
- ✓ PLEASE NOTE: All due dates and times are for the central time zone. Therefore, if you travel to another time zone, you must still turn in all assignments in at the correct time for the central time zone and not the time zone that you are in at that moment. You are responsible for making sure that you make all of your deadlines when traveling to other time zones.

Late Work Policy:

1. No credit will be given for missed quizzes, application activities, or the article presentation without pre-approval, as flexibility is already built into the grading system.
2. The Supreme Court, Getting to Know the Law, and Business Entity Assignments will lose 10% of the points available per day late. It is generally in your best interest to submit an assignment a day or two late and complete than on time with only half done, especially the GTKL. You are allowed one extra day on ONE of these assignments by sending me an email before the assignment is due with a brief explanation of the reason for the delay (even if it is just procrastination, as honesty is a great trait), and submitting the assignment within the initial 24-hour extension.

3. For Exams, see the explanation below under “Course Requirements”, “Overview of Graded Activities”, "Exams."

Class Communications Policy: Communication is a very critical component of any online environment and in this course, you are expected to conduct yourself in a respectful manner. Be sure to abide by the following guidelines when participating in the various methods of communication with instructors and classmates:

1. Think your response through before responding. Before you submit your comments, proofread your comments to prevent any misunderstandings from occurring.
2. Do not capitalize everything. Capital letters may be used for the occasional EMPHASIS, but avoid typing completely in capital letters because people assume you are shouting.
3. Use correct spelling and proper grammar. Keep your responses on topic and concise. Do not write long responses, for it will not likely be read or take up too much of another person's time.
4. Do not ramble. You are not the only person behind a keyboard. Be mindful of others' feelings and treat them with the same respect that everyone deserves.
5. Communicate respectfully, thoughtfully considering whether what you say or write might come across negatively to others. Assertive, constructive communication is not negative or aggressive.
6. Keep conversations clean from foul language. The online course is an environment for positive feedback and productive dialogue. Profanity will not earn any points and can lower your course grade.

Because communicating courteously and professionally in business is a vital skill - saying the wrong thing to the wrong person could ruin one’s career - I reserve the right to reduce the grade of a student who communicates in a grossly unprofessional manner with respect to another student or myself (email, classroom activities, Canvas messaging, etc.) We can disagree with each another, however we must learn to do so respectfully in order to maintain employment and be successful in business today. Thus: Disrespectful communication in class & team interactions, course messaging, email, or communications using other communication modes & platforms can result in a lower grade, and if severe enough, will be reported to the university for action consistent with university policy.

University Student Code of Conduct

In this course, you are also expected to abide by the University's student code of conduct and the policies on classroom. For more information regarding the Student Conduct process [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html]. If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a report, [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=0].

Overview: Graded Learning Activities: Assignment, discussion, and exam details are posted in the Canvas classroom.

Proctorio Extension Check/Installation (5 bonus point) - Please read the Proctorio Getting Started topic (a pdf file) posted in the Canvas Orientation Module in the online classroom. It contains information you need for installing Proctorio).

- Then post a screen shot (or save in WORD) and attach in your assignment folder showing that you’ve successfully installed the extension in your Chrome browser.
- The assignment must be completed in order for you to be able to successfully access and sit for the exams.

Grading: You earn 1 point, if submitted on time. In any case, submission of this assignment is required in order to take the exams. See Course Calendar for due date.

Learning Guide (Syllabus) Quiz (5 bonus points) - Please complete the syllabus quiz to understand both the structure and content of this course. You will find the link for the quiz in Module 1 (Click on the ‘Modules’ link on the Canvas course menu). This assignment assesses CLO 17.

Grading: A student can do this assignment until 100% is achieved. See Canvas Calendar for due date.

Chapter Content Quizzes (130 total points) - Each week, you will have one or two short quizzes on the chapter(s) covered that week (24 total). Each quiz will have five questions worth 5.5 points (1.1 points per question). Each quiz also has a 10-minute time limit, giving you an average of 2 minutes per question (average completion time for each is usually under six minutes), so be very familiar with the content by reading the chapter(s) and listening to the audio content before taking them.

As things will happen that lead to lower performance or a missed quiz, twelve additional points are built into the scoring from the uneven value of 1.1 points per question. These points will make up for missed questions or even two missed quizzes. These assessments align with CLOs 4 and 5 and are the first opportunity to check your learning for the chapter(s).

Grading: Answers are either right or wrong. The quizzes are set up to reveal the correct answers and feedback at midnight the day after they are due. Feedback remains visible up to the start of exams. Quizzes are due Thursdays by 23:59 CT. See Course Calendar for due dates.

Content Application Activities (150 total points) - Each week, we will examine cases and work on application problems over the material in the chapter(s). Each activity is worth 10 points.

As things sometimes come up that may lead to an incomplete or missed activity, I will replace your lowest score with the average score on your remaining activities (rounding up above .5 and down at .49 or less). This gives you a somewhat “free week” at some point. This is also the one assignment you may work on with another student. These activities align with CLOs 2, 4, and 5 and are the second weekly opportunity to check your learning for the chapter(s).
Grading: Your grade is based on completion and effort, not technical accuracy. I only expect you to spend about forty-five minutes to an hour on them each week, so I’m not expecting deep, grammatically correct answers. Application activities are due Saturdays by 23:59 CT. See Course Calendar for due dates.

Article Presentation – 40 Points – You will find a recent article (within the last three months) connected to a course concept, summarize it, and explicitly discuss the connection to class concepts in a video recording submitted in Canvas. This assessment aligns with CLO 7.

Grading: The connection component and the summary are worth 20 points of the grade. The remaining 20 points will go to the quality of the presentation itself. The Grade Rubric for this activity can be reviewed in Appendix A. The rubric is also attached to the assignment instructions in Canvas to find guidance on proper presentation skills as well as the scoring details of the assignment. The article presentation video must be submitted in Canvas by 11:59 pm (23:59) on Sunday, October 15th.

Analyzing a Supreme Court Decision (80 points) - The assignment details are posted under the ‘Assignments’ tab in Canvas, along with an example from a previous term. This assessment aligns with CLO 1.

Grading: The Grade Rubric for this activity can be reviewed in Appendix B at the end of this syllabus. Submit this assignment via Canvas by 11:59 pm (23:59) on Sunday, September 17th.

Getting to Know the Law Assignment (GTKL) – (100 Points) – The assignment details are posted under the ‘Assignments’ tab in Canvas. This assessment aligns with CLO 3.

Grading: The Grade Rubric for this activity can be reviewed in Appendix C at the end of this syllabus. Submit this assignment via Canvas by 11:59 pm (23:59) on Sunday, November 12th.

Business Entity Application Memo (100 Points) - You or a family member may start a business in your life. One of the major decisions facing entrepreneurs is how to organize their businesses. This assignment will apply what you have learned to a hypothetical business scenario. You will find more detailed instructions in the “Assignments” tab in Canvas, along with an example from a previous term. This assessment aligns with CLOs 5 & 6.

Grading: The Grade Rubric for this activity can be reviewed in Appendix D at the end of this syllabus. Submit this assignment via Canvas by 11:59 pm (23:59) on Sunday, December 10th.

Bonus Assignment – (bonus points) - There is a bonus assignment under the ‘Assignments’ tab in Canvas.

Grading: To be eligible, you may not have more than three missing minor assignments (Quizzes and Application Activities) or one major assignment without permission. Also, you cannot have had an academic integrity violation in the course. Be sure to comply with the deadline of Tuesday, December 12th. Late submissions are not accepted for bonus points.

Exams – 400 points (100 Points each) – There are 4 exams (approximately one every four weeks). Depending on the exam, these assessments align with CLOs 2, 4, and 5 and serve as the third opportunity to assess your learning of the covered chapters.

- Exams may include multiple choice, T/F, and essay questions at my discretion. The current plan is 34 multiple choice/T/F questions worth 2.2 points each and five short essays worth 5.04 points each.
- You can access exams only when the exam window opens. Our exams will be available for at least two days via Canvas (usually Sunday/Monday). The exam will open at 12:00 AM on day one and close at 11:59 PM CST on day two, with a time limit of 120 minutes. 11:59 pm is a hard cut-off, so if you start the exam at 11:00 pm, you will only have one hour.
- If you start too late, I may still not be awake to respond to a message about an exam issue. See the Schedule and Canvas Calendar for dates and availability windows.

- Follow exam instructions closely and watch the clock as your answers will ‘auto-submit’ once time has expired. You may use your text, personal notes, and anything I put in Canvas to assist you, but you may not use the Internet or another person’s help. As well, cutting and pasting from online of offline materials, or using the help of AI are considered cheating.
- To help with exams, I will post a "practice exam" that contains half the number of exam questions and is similar in format. It is not intended as a review but as an example of the structure. It allows you to practice timing to answer all the questions within the allotted time.
- Please schedule around the available exam window. If there is an unavoidable conflict, you must let me know ahead of time, not after. I may open an exam early or later, but only in extreme cases, given the replacement possibility (see next bullet below). You cannot retake the exam or reschedule the exam after the fact unless you have documentation of an extenuating circumstances outside of your control (I do require documentation of severe illness, funerals, sudden necessary trips, or field exercises).
- Students occasionally have an exam grade that differs substantially from performance on the rest, particularly the first when learning the timing and structure. If this is the case OR you miss an exam with a valid excuse, you may submit a research paper to replace a grade on one of your first three exams. The topic would have to be approved by me, cover a learning objective in the replaced exam, and be 1,200 - 1,500 words. To be eligible for this replacement option, you must not have had an academic integrity violation in the course.
- The online exams utilize Proctorio remote proctoring technology, so you will need a webcam. The proctoring software will also require you to use Google Chrome AND have the Proctorio extension on the browser, or you will get a message about a non-existent access code.

Posting of Grades
- Generally, assignment feedback and grades will be posted in Canvas under the ‘My Grades’ tab, allowing you to monitor your progress during the semester.
- I endeavor to give you feedback within a week of due dates, though in exam weeks this may vary somewhat.
- Grades may also be adjusted at the end of the semester based on class results. This means that an average grade may qualify for a higher letter grade than the scale normally provides for, to facilitate an appropriate grade distribution.

Pregnant and/or Parenting Students Rights and Accommodations

Texas A&M University-Central Texas supports students who are pregnant, experiencing pregnancy-related conditions, and/or parenting. In accordance with requirements of Title IX and related guidance from US Department of Education’s Office of Civil Rights, the Associate Dean in the Division of Student Affairs, (254) 501-5909, can assist students who are pregnant, experiencing pregnancy-related conditions, and/or parenting by providing flexible and individualized reasonable accommodations. Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 specifically prohibits discrimination against a student based on pregnancy, childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, or recovery from any of these conditions [https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.html].
Students experiencing any form of discrimination due to any of these conditions are encouraged to reach out to the Title IX Coordinator, 254.519.5716, titleix@tamuct.edu, Founders Hall 317B, or the Associate Dean of Student Affairs, 254.501.5909, Warrior Hall 105.

If you or another student has experienced any form of gender discrimination or sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and/or sex-based stalking, help and support are available. Our university strongly encourages all members of our campus community to report incidents and seek support for gender discrimination and sexual misconduct through the Title IX Office. You may contact the Title IX Office at 254.519.5716, titleix@tamuct.edu, Founders Hall 317B, or learn more by visiting the Title IX webpage https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html.

Please be aware that that under Title IX, Texas Senate Bill 212, and System Regulation 08.01.01, https://policies.tamus.edu/08-01-01.pdf all university employees are mandated reporters and are required to disclose information about suspected or alleged violations as listed above and defined in System Regulation 08.01.01. If the Title IX Office receives information about an incident, they will reach out to offer information about resources, rights, and procedural options as a member of the campus community. Although I have an obligation to report, you will, in most cases, control how your case will be handled. When working with the Title IX Office you will have access to resources and accommodations but also have the opportunity to express if you wish to move forward with an investigation. Our goal is to make sure you are aware of the options available to you as a student. Community members are not required to respond to this outreach.

If you or another student wishes to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact the Student Wellness & Counseling Center, https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-counseling.html, 254.501.5955, or swacc@tamuct.edu, located in Warrior Hall Room 207L or the Student Support Advocate, 254.501.5978 or ssa@tamuct.edu, located in founder Hall Room 317D.

University Writing Center

Located in Warrior Hall 416 and online, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (A&M–Central Texas) is a free service open to all A&M–Central Texas students. The face-to-face hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday and Thursday in Warrior Hall 416. Online tutoring is available Monday thru Thursday from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. and from 6:00-9:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 12:00-3:00 p.m.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students’ ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students’ texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WCONline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor.

OTHER POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Behavioral Intervention
Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reporting.php?TAMUCentralTexas].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/bit]. If a person’s behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.
