

Financial Management I

FIN 3301-110 (CRN: 80110)

Fall 2023, 16-week, fully online, Texas A&M University Central Texas

Mode of instruction and course access:

This is a 100% online course, with materials and lectures made available online via the TAMUCT Canvas LMS [<https://tamuct.instructure.com>]. The weekly routine will be as follows:

- Mon/Tuesdays: Weekly lecture materials and videos to be posted in advance
- Following Wednesdays 17:00-18:00 (or TBD): Optional live clinic sessions (online via Zoom)
*Post your questions in advance to the class discussion board in Canvas (or email me).

Textbook:

Fundamentals of Corporate Finance, Ross, Westerfield, Jordan, 13ed., McGraw-Hill

INSTRUCTOR AND CONTACT INFORMATION

- Instructor : Kirak “Daniel” Kim
- Office : Founders Hall 323
- Email : kdkim@tamuct.edu

Office Hours

Wednesdays, during or after the live sessions (or by appointment).

Student-instructor interaction

My preferred communication method is via the TAMUCT Outlook email system. Note that Canvas built-in email is not recommended as it occasionally causes problems. Make sure you check all email announcements sent to your TAMUCT Outlook. I check email regularly on weekdays and a couple of times a day on weekends.

Each week lecture materials (slides, videos, etc.) will be uploaded for students to watch and study in advance. Follow-up clinics will be used for various activities, such as problem solving, Q&As, or discussion. Exams will be given online using Proctorio. Students are strongly encouraged to join Clinic sessions and participate in the Online Discussion Board. Students’ engagement also allows me to understand your strengths and weaknesses and helps me help you better. Do not fall behind and do not be afraid to ask for help.

Emergency Warning System for Texas A&M University-Central Texas

SAFEZONE. SafeZone provides a public safety application that gives you the ability to call for help with the push of a button. It also provides Texas A&M University-Central Texas the ability to communicate

COURSE INFORMATION

Course overview and description

The course analyzes financial decision-making at the corporate level with emphasis on the maximization of stockholder wealth. Students learn various topics such as financial statement analysis, the valuation of stocks and bonds, cost of capital, capital budgeting, dividend policy, leverage and capital structure, methods of firm valuation, working capital management, mergers and acquisitions, and bankruptcy.

(Prerequisite(s): ACCT 2302 or ACCT 2402 and ECON 2301. *Basic algebra, accounting, and economics required.)

Course objective and student learning outcomes

Students who successfully complete this course should be able to:

- describe the main questions pertaining to the investment and financial decisions of corporate managers in conjunction with the objective of the firm
- explain and apply the fundamental analytical tools for finance, including the conceptual foundation for the financial statements, the notion of time value of money, and the law of one price (no arbitrage principle)
- evaluate investment/financial alternatives from a time value of money perspective
- describe and apply the methods of valuing a stream of future cash flows from real assets and financial securities
- evaluate corporate investment alternatives and their risk/return characteristics
- discuss the main types of financing and their advantages/disadvantages as sources of capital

Required reading and textbook

- Fundamentals of Corporate Finance, Ross, Westerfield, Jordan, 13ed., McGraw-Hill
- Lecture notes/slides, problem sets, and other reading materials to be uploaded on Canvas
- A financial calculator (Texas Instrument BA II Plus) is strongly recommended.

Course requirements

- Homework assignments (150 points total)
 - Problem sets (100 points, all assignments combined)
 - Data analysis homework (50 points) Signature assignment linked to AACSB PSLO #6NOTE: Students are required to submit their homework via Canvas, using the links provided in the Assignments section of Canvas. Late submission not accepted (any extenuating circumstances should be communicated in advance).*
- Exams (350 points total)
 - Exam 1 (110 pts), Exam 2 (120 pts), Exam 3 (120 pts)NOTE: Although exams are not cumulative, you must understand earlier chapters, to be able to deal with later chapters since much of the material builds on itself.*
- Extra credit opportunities may be available (e.g., participation in discussion questions, career development assignments, etc.). However, any extra credit earned in this course can be used to raise students' final letter grade by one notch only (i.e., extra credit earned can raise the letter grade, e.g., from C to B but cannot raise it from C to A). Each case will be given careful consideration.
Note that the limit is imposed to discourage students' "strategic" behaviors and to avoid "tail-wagging-the-dog" situations.*

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

>= 90%	A
80–89%	B
70–79%	C
60–69%	D
< 60%	F

Posting of grades: Grades will be posted on Canvas (grades and the feedback will be provided within a week from each exam).

Academic Integrity

Texas A&M University-Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. All academic misconduct concerns will be referred to the Student Conduct Office. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

For more information regarding the student conduct process, [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html].

If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a referral, [https://cm.maxient.com/reporting.php?TAMUCentralTexas].

Drop Policy

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete the Drop Request Dynamic Form through Warrior Web.

[<https://federation.ngwebsolutions.com/sp/startSSO.ping?PartnerIdpid=https://eis-prod.ec.tamuct.edu:443/samlSSO&SpSessionAuthnAdapterId=tamuctDF&TargetResource=https%3a%2f%2fdynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com%2fSubmit%2fStart%2f53b8369e-0502-4f36-be43-f02a4202f612>].

Faculty cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Records and Admissions Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed. Once you submit the completed form to the Records and Admissions Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Records and Admissions Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Pregnant and/or Parenting Students Rights and Accommodations

Texas A&M University-Central Texas supports students who are pregnant, experiencing pregnancy-related conditions, and/or parenting. In accordance with requirements of Title IX and related guidance from US Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights, the Associate Dean in the Division of Student Affairs, (254) 501-5909, can assist students who are pregnant, experiencing pregnancy-related conditions, and/or parenting by provide flexible and individualized reasonable accommodations. Students should seek out assistance as early in the pregnancy as possible through the Pregnancy & Parenting webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/pregnant-and-parenting-students.html>]. For more information, please visit Student Affairs [<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/pregnant-and-parenting-students.html>]. If you would like to read more about these requirements and guidelines online, please visit the website [<http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.pdf>].

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 specifically prohibits discrimination against a student based on pregnancy, childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, or recovery from any of these conditions [<https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.html>].

Students experiencing any form of discrimination due to any of these conditions are encouraged to reach out to the Title IX Coordinator, 254.519.5716, titleix@tamuct.edu, Founders Hall 317B, or the Associate Dean of Student Affairs, 254.501.5909, Warrior Hall 105.

Title IX Rights and Reporting Responsibilities

Texas A&M University-Central Texas is committed to creating a safe and open learning environment for all students. If you or another student has experienced any form of gender discrimination or sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and/or sex-based stalking, help and support are available. Our university strongly encourages all members of our campus community to report incidents and seek support for gender discrimination and sexual misconduct through the Title IX Office. You may contact the Title IX Office at 254.519.5716, titleix@tamuct.edu, Founders Hall 317B, or learn more by visiting the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Please be aware that that under Title IX, Texas Senate Bill 212, and System Regulation 08.01.01, [https://policies.tamus.edu/08-01-01.pdf] all university employees are mandated reporters and are required to disclose information about suspected or alleged violations as listed above and defined in System Regulation 08.01.01. If the Title IX Office receives information about an incident, they will reach out to offer information about resources, rights, and procedural options as a member of the campus community. Although I have an obligation to report, you will, in most cases, control how your case will be handled. When working with the Title IX Office you will have access to resources and accommodations but also have the opportunity to express if you wish to move forward with an investigation. Our goal is to make sure you are aware of the options available to you as a student. Community members are not required to respond to this outreach.

If you or another student wishes to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact the Student Wellness & Counseling Center, [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-counseling.html], 254.501.5955, or swacc@tamuct.edu, located in Warrior Hall Room 207L or the Student Support Advocate, 254.501.5978 or ssa@tamuct.edu, located in founder Hall Room 317D.

University Library & Archives

The University Library & Archives provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 350 electronic databases containing approximately 1,203,947 eBooks and 134,750 journals, in addition to the 96,879 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place virtually through WebEx, Microsoft Teams or in-person at the library. Schedule an appointment here

[https://tamuct.libcal.com/appointments]. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group workspaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. For more information, please visit our Library website

University Writing Center

Located in Warrior Hall 416 and online, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (A&M–Central Texas) is a free service open to all A&M–Central Texas students. The face-to-face hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday and Thursday in Warrior Hall 416. Online tutoring is available Monday thru Thursday from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. and from 6:00-9:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 12:00-3:00 p.m.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WOnline [<https://tamuct.mywconline.com/>]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor.

OTHER POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html>].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online

[<https://cm.maxient.com/reporting.php?TAMUCentralTexas>].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [<https://www.tamuct.edu/bit>]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.
