Important Reminder

NO LATE PAPERS WILL BE ACCEPTED UNLESS EXCUSED.

Please see the Canvas course's page for each assignment for greater assignment details. Below are the basic requirements for all assignments in the course.

Review Papers

For both the book review of Seven Myths and the Chapter reviews of Slaves, Subjects, and Subversives I expect at least a 1000 word essay double-spaced and in Turabian Format. The essay should have a cover page with your name, date, class, and title on it. Your papers must abide by the Turabian Style Guide.

For the Book Review, you will be reviewing Seven Myths of the Spanish Conquest. For the first chapter review, you will pick one chapter from chapters 1 -5 in Slaves, Subjects, and Subversives. For the second chapter review you will pick a chapter from chapters 6-9 in the same book.

A review essay is not just a book report, or a chapter report. It is a critical analysis of the material you are reading. You should write what the reading is about, but you also need to critique it. How does it compare to what we have learned in class? How does it compare to what we have learned from our other resources? Is the author bias? What are the limitations of his or her study? All of these questions would be excellent topics to write about in a review essay. Of course with the chapters you will be able to go into depth a little more since they are shorter, but I do expect to see detail and examples in all of your essays.

Online Participation

Each unit will have a set of questions that will be discussed on the Canvas course site. Make sure to post to EACH topic. This is a writing exercise, so please proofread your posts and use correct grammar. All posts should be at least 250 words long. Please use Turabian formatting when citing and quoting outside sources. Each topic will have a due date listed. Only posts made before the due date will be accepted.

In each topic students are required to answer the prompts I have asked by the first due date of the unit. (See calendar and the course content for specific due dates) Then students must respond to two different classmate's posts. For example, Do you agree with them? Why or why not? What sources and examples can you bring in to support your position? These posts should be substantial and at least 200 words long.

The idea here is to get to know your classmates and to practice your writing and communication skills. Have fun, be provocative, but please be considerate of your peers.

Midterm and Final Exams

The final exam will contain short answer and essay questions. To prepare for the exam, please take thorough notes while reading your textbooks, any other assigned course materials throughout the course, and while watching the mini-lectures throughout the course. Some portions of the final will be comprehensive.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

Final Grades will be determined based upon the following scale:

A	=	900-1000 points
B	=	800-899 points
C	=	700-799 points
D	=	600-699 points
F	=	Below 600 points

Please see Canvas course for specific rubrics. It is encouraged that students read any provided rubrics before starting their assignments so that they know all aspects that they will be graded on.

Important Reminder

NO LATE PAPERS WILL BE ACCEPTED UNLESS EXCUSED.

Posting of Grades

Grades for each assignment will be posted on Canvas in the gradebook section. Feedback for written work will be accessible in the same location.

Grading Policies

Unexcused/ Late Work or Absences from Exams:

The only valid excuses for missing an exam or failing to turn in a paper or homework on time are illnesses requiring medical care, required university activities, religious holidays, or a personal emergency of a serious nature. To be excused without penalty, documentation is required. In certain other circumstances, I will allow you to turn in an assignment early or take an exam in advance, but you must email as soon as possible. Do not wait until the last possible minute.

Academic Integrity:

Any work determined to be plagiarism, or any academic integrity violation will earn a ZERO grade for the assignment. No plagiarized assignment may be rewritten for any amount of credit. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. You must follow the honesty codes set forth in the student handbook. Plagiarism is a serious offense. This or any other violation of the university's Code of Student Conduct can result in penalties that can include up to an F in the class and expulsion from the university. For the official definition of what constitutes plagiarism, see the Student Handbook. Refer to the university's Academic Integrity policies below for further consequences of plagiarism.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online

[https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/bit]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.
