Expectations and Conduct:

- Students enrolled in this course are expected to complete all assignments, on time. They are expected to complete all assigned readings and assignments before the deadline and they are expected to be able to knowledgeably discuss the readings during class discussions.

Class Discussion and Participation:

- Students are required to be respectful of their classmates during the entirety of this course. Although many of you will disagree with one another and perhaps even be offended by some of the material we will cover, any personal attack against another student of any kind will not be tolerated and will result in disciplinary action. Because open discussions are encouraged, it is inevitable that personal beliefs and philosophies will be challenged, however, students will not use political leanings, religious beliefs, gender, race, class, ethnicity or sexuality as fodder for attack.

- Students can find in this syllabus a schedule of all topics and assignments that will be covered during the semester. Some of these topics may entail the use of explicit language, violence, sexuality or other potentially offensive material. If you feel that you will not be able to deal with this type of material, it is suggested that you drop the course now. Always remember that if you have questions or concerns, I am available for discussion.

Assignments and Grading:

1) Quizzes (100 points)

There are 5 quizzes this semester, each quiz is 10 questions worth 2 points each for a total of 20 points per quiz.

Quizzes are multiple choice and true/false and will cover any assigned reading and video for the week they are due. You may use your book to answer the questions.

You will have 40 minutes to complete 10 questions at which time the quiz will close and you will not be able to reopen the quiz.

You must answer one question at a time and cannot go back to previous questions, so be sure of your answer before you submit each one.

Quizzes are automatically graded, so you'll know how you did immediately.

All quizzes will be based on your textbook: Rethinking the Color Line

2) Check-in Assignments (100 points)

There are 5 check-in assignments this semester, each worth 20 points per assignment.

You must complete the entire assignment and answer all questions to receive any points. If you do not answer all questions you will not receive any points.

Check-in assignments are designed to assess your personal experience with the concepts covered in this class. Please answer as honestly as possible and consider your answers carefully before you submit.

Think about your own life and apply the concepts you've learned in class. Consider the definition of the concepts to determine how these have applied (or not applied) in your life.

Check-in assignments will be graded based on whether you answered all questions by the deadline.

3) Tests (100 points)

There are 2 tests this semester. Both are multiple choice and true/false, both are comprehensive. Each test is 50 questions worth 1 point each.

Test 1 is subject to cover anything and everything in any assigned readings or videos since the first day of class.

Test 2 is subject to cover anything and everything in any assigned readings or videos since Test 1.

You will have 90 minutes to complete 50 questions at which time the test will close and you will not be able to reopen the test.

You must answer one question at a time and cannot go back to previous questions, so be sure of your answer before you submit each one.

Tests are automatically graded, so you'll know how you did immediately.

All tests will be based on your textbook: Rethinking the Color Line

Grading:

There are a total of 300 points available in this class. Final grades will be calculated depending on all points you've acquired on all assignments. All points will be added together and divided by 300 to get a percentage. I do not grade on a curve so the final percentage is your final grade. The scale below shows the percentage to letter grade comparison. If the third decimal place in the final percentage is a 5 or greater, AND the percentage is on the cusp of going up a letter grade, I will round up. For example, if your final percentage is .89533 (89%, B), because the third decimal place is a 5 AND the grade is on the verge of going up a letter, I will round up and your final grade for the class would become an A. These are the only conditions under which I will increase a final grade; all other requests will be denied.

A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	0-59

- By remaining enrolled in this course and after having read the syllabus, you agree that you understand all the terms and conditions expressed therein. If you have ANY questions or concerns please feel free to contact me any time.
- Disability Statement: If you have special needs as addressed by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), please notify me immediately. Reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate your special needs.
- Academic Integrity: Academic integrity is fundamental to the activities and principles of a university. All members of the academic community must be confident that each person's work has been responsibly and honorably acquired, developed, and presented. Any effort to gain an advantage not given to all students is dishonest whether or not the effort is successful. The academic community regards breaches of the academic integrity rules as extremely serious matters. Sanctions for such a breach may include academic sanctions from the instructor, including failing the course for any violation, to disciplinary sanctions ranging from probation to expulsion. When in doubt about plagiarism, paraphrasing, quoting, collaboration, or any other form of cheating, consult the course instructor.

FAQs

1. What should I call you?

I received my PhD from the University of Missouri many years ago, so you should call me Dr. Schlosser. Lots of students also call me Dr. S, which is just fine, too!

2. What should I do if I have questions?

You should look at the syllabus. MOST questions you have are probably already addressed on the syllabus. However, if you do have other questions, you can email me.

3. If I want to email you, how should I address it?

When you email any professor, the correct way to do so is to address them professionally. For instance, you can say: "Dear Dr. Schlosser," or even just "Hi, Dr. Schlosser," Then, state what class you are in (I have many students in several classes) and your specific question. Close the email with your name and contact information. I tend not to respond to emails that are not courteous and professional.

4. What if I have to miss a deadline?

Seriously rethink the event that will cause you to miss a deadline. I do not allow make-ups for any reason other than documented, University activities. You have a full week to complete assignments, so if you think you're going to be out of town or not have access to a computer on the due date, simply turn it in early.

5. What if I'm confused or struggling with the class?

Email me!!!! Do this EARLY and OFTEN. I can help you understand the material, organize your notes, and give you study tips. You are responsible for your grade, but that also means you need to inform me if you're struggling so we can address issues you may be having early.

University Writing Center

Located in Warrior Hall 416 and online, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (A&M–Central Texas) is a free service open to all A&M–Central Texas students. The face-to-face hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday and Thursday in Warrior Hall 416. Online tutoring is available Monday thru Thursday from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. and from 6:00-9:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 12:00-3:00 p.m.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WCOnline [<https://tamuct.mywconline.com/>]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor.

OTHER POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].
