What is a Writing Instructive (WI) course?

- This is a writing instructive (WI) course, so writing will be integral to my instruction and our interactions. Writing will also be a fundamental measure of student mastery of course content. WI means you will have several opportunities to improve your writing skills.
- Students will complete work on various writing assignments, such as discussion boards, journals, annotated bibliographies, and reaction papers. As part of these assignments, you will receive timely written feedback to revise your work and improve on subsequent similar assignments. For example, you will complete three annotated bibliographies; feedback on the first should be incorporated into subsequent assignments.

Is this an online course?

- Yes. This course uses the TAMUCT CANVAS system. You must have reliable and frequent computer and Internet access to complete this course. In addition, you must be able to access Canvas. Instructor expectations

- This is an online course, so most communication between the instructor and students will be online. Students are welcomed and encouraged to make an appointment for an online video appointment or face-to-face office visit.
- I will check and reply to student emails daily - students should expect a response within 24-48 hours. Emails sent on a weekend will be responded to the following Monday unless it is a holiday. Any deviations from this will be announced on Canvas. During daytime working hours, emails will be responded to more quickly, and other methods of communication can also be utilized if pre-arranged (e.g., Canvas chat or Webex video chat).
- Most assignments will be graded within one week of submission. Depending on length, writing assignments will be graded within two weeks of submission. Deviations from this will be announced on Canvas. All grades will be posted on Canvas. Feedback on writing assignments will be provided on Canvas*. Students are encouraged to track their progress in the course through the Canvas gradebook.
 - You cannot see feedback on the Canvas mobile app; you must use a computer to be able to see feedback on written assignments.*
- Grading of written assignments: I will provide detailed feedback on the first few paragraphs/first page of any written assignment; I will not mark all writing issues. I will provide general feedback for the entire assignment.

Course Requirements

Letter of Introduction (0-10 points)

- A letter of introduction is required during the first week of class for attendance verification. Details can be found on Canvas.

Syllabus Assignment (0-10 points)

- A careful review of any course syllabus is important for student success. This assignment requires a review of the course syllabus and feedback to the instructor. Details can be found on Canvas.

Journal Entries (0-10 points each; 90 points total)

- The student will be responsible for completing nine (9) journal entries. Each journal entry is a modification of a discussion question. Each student will be required to respond to the prompt provided by the instructor.
- Please read the directions for each entry carefully before responding. Some may require watching videos or reading articles, while others may require you to locate items independently.
- Your response will be posted so the entire class can view the response. However, you cannot view ANY responses until you post. This avoids getting answers from another student's post.
- I want all students to benefit from the entries of their classmates. You will be able to respond to each other's entries. You will not be graded directly on the responses. However, you should note that if your response is not adequate, any additional information you give responding to other entries and questions posted to your response can add points to your grade.
- Journal responses should be at least 250 words (1/2 page) to be considered for full credit. These can be written in the first person (e.g., I, me, my).
- Journal responses are not opinion pieces – your responses should reflect your knowledge and/or research about the topic and what is known in the criminal justice field.
- More details can be found on Canvas.

Annotated Bibliographies (0-100 points; 300 points total)

- Three (3) annotated bibliographies are required for this course. The student shall locate and read five (5) peer-reviewed journal articles from the online library databases related to three general topics: courts, corrections, and law enforcement.
- The topics of courts, corrections, and law enforcement are very broad – the student should identify a specific aspect within each general topic and make that the focus of the annotated bibliography. I am including some examples below – these are just a few of the many aspects of each broad topic the student could focus on. If you are unsure of a focus area, email me or request a meeting, and we can brainstorm.
 - Law enforcement (e.g., police officers, sheriff deputies, federal agents)
 - Use of force
 - False testimony
 - Job satisfaction
 - Use of technology
 - Corrections (e.g., institutional, community (probation/parole), offenders, facilities)
 - Inappropriate relationships between inmates and COs
 - Probation/parole officer discretion
 - Inmates with mental health
 - Reintegration of offenders

- Courts (e.g., judges, prosecutors, defense attorneys, juries, sentencing)
 - Judicial decision-making
 - Sentencing disparities
 - Prosecutor discretion
 - Specialized courts
- Once the student has read the articles, he/she will summarize them succinctly, in one page each (no more than one page, no less than $\frac{3}{4}$ of a page). Thus, each annotated bibliography should not exceed five pages. The student will not receive credit for articles that are not peer-reviewed. These are to be summaries, not critiques of the articles.
- Additional details about annotated bibliographies will be posted on Canvas.
- Details about annotated bibliographies will be posted on Canvas.

Reaction Essays (0-50 points; 150 points total)

Each student will be required to write three (3) reaction essays. These essays will be written according to the content in the annotated bibliographies. The reaction essays should consider carefully what you think about what you have read and written in the annotated bibliography assignments.

- Reaction essays can be written in first-person.
- Details about reaction essays will be posted on Canvas.

Additional Assignment Information

Assignment submission

- All assignments must be submitted through Canvas.
- All annotated bibliographies and reaction essays must be in Microsoft Word format - make sure when you save a final draft of any assignment that it is either a .doc or .docx document. If you do not know how to do this, I suggest visiting the computer lab.
- Discussion/journal responses should be typed in the discussion board text box. Do not attach a document to discussion boards. The best practice would be to write everything in a Word document first, then copy and paste it into the discussion box; save this work.

Extra credit?

There is no extra credit built into the course. Do not expect extra credit, and do not ask for it.

Late assignments?

Late assignments will be accepted up to two weeks past the recommended due date with no penalty. Assignments submitted after two weeks will automatically be deducted $\frac{1}{2}$ the points before they are graded. Assignments submitted after the recommended due date will receive less feedback than those submitted on time. Feedback is essential to improve upon subsequent coursework. No assignments will be accepted past the last course date.

How do I figure out my grade?

Final course grades will be assessed on the following scale:

| Assignment | Points | My Grade |
|--------------------------|---------------|-----------------|
| Introduction | 10 | |
| Syllabus Assignment | 10 | |
| Annotated Bibliographies | 300 (100x3) | |
| Reaction Essays | 150 (50x3) | |
| Journal Entries | 90 (9x10) | |
| Total | 560 | |

Located in Warrior Hall 416 and online, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (A&M–Central Texas) is a free service open to all A&M–Central Texas students. The face-to-face hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday and Thursday in Warrior Hall 416. Online tutoring is available Monday thru Thursday from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. and from 6:00-9:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 12:00-3:00 p.m.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WCOonline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor.

OTHER POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].
