Mode of instruction and course access:

- This course is a 100% online class and requires students to have access to reliable internet connection throughout the semester.
- This course is designated by the university as a Service-Learning (SL) course and requires students to engage with the community in a manner that support course learning outcomes.
- This course uses the A&M-Central Texas Canvas Learning Management System [<https://tamuct.instructure.com>].

Students will access all course materials (except textbook), assignments, student-instructor and student-student communication, activities, exams and resource links via the Course Web Site in Canvas. You will be engaging in Service-Learning Projects within your local community for a total of 15 hours within the semester. Please review the course schedule for these dates in the syllabus and plan accordingly ahead of time.

This is a demanding course that requires students to be self-disciplined. Be sure you understand and are prepared to comply with all required class assignments and deadlines. Be prepared to spend 6-8 hours per week on readings and assignments + your mandatory

Service-Learning requiring a total of 15 hours of community service and engagement time throughout the semester.

Student-instructor interaction:

I check emails regularly and usually respond within 24h during weekdays (48h during weekend and holidays). Please NO texting language. I can meet in person, on the phone, or online using web-conference tools.

Occasionally, a University meeting or Conference travel will preempt my prompt responses to your message; should this happen I will post an announcement via Canvas.

Student should check Canvas regularly for announcements AND activate Canvas notifications to be immediately notified about any announcements and course updates.

Emergency Warning System for Texas A&M University-Central Texas SAFEZONE. SafeZone provides a public safety application that gives you the ability to call for help with the push of a button. COURSE INFORMATION

Course Overview and description: (Service Learning) (3 Semester Credit Hours and 15 hours of Service Learning) This course is designed to provide an examination of contemporary organizational ethical issues and challenges. Analysis of stakeholder management and sustainability, with a strong emphasis on the manager's corporate social responsibilities to a wide variety of stakeholders. Students will study ethical dilemmas and decision-making frameworks and approaches to the personal, group, organizational and societal levels. Engage in real-world applications through case study analysis and service learning is a critical portion of the course. Prerequisite(s): BUSI 3301 and MGMT 3301.

Course Objective: The overall objective of this course is for each student to develop a critical thinking perspective to approach various ethical concerns encountered by organizational members within the contemporary business world. This course is required for COBA/BBA majors. This course would be a good elective for ANY students having achieved senior level status wanting a better understanding of the manager’s social and environmental responsibilities to key stakeholder groups.

TAMUCT - Course Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of the Business Ethics & Corporate Social Responsibility course, the student will be able to:

- CLO1. Explain the importance of ethical behavior in today’s the business world.
- CLO2. Explain how business ethics relates to larger moral and philosophical frameworks.
- CLO3. Identify ethical dilemmas that occur in the workplace.
- CLO4. Evaluate an ethical situation by applying the steps of ethical decision making.
- CLO5. Evaluate the concept of corporate social responsibility.
- CLO6. Identify the moral obligations of businesses to the environment.
- CLO7. Formulate an argument that supports a particular stance over real-world business activities with regards to ethical issues and social responsibility.
- CLO8. Engage in and reflect upon (at least) two service learning (SL) projects in the student’s local community:

SL Outcome 1. Analysis of knowledge: Students will connect and extend knowledge (facts, theories, etc.) from one's own academic study/field/discipline to civic engagement and to one's own participation in civic life, politics, and government.

SL Outcome 2. Diversity of communities and cultures: Students will reflect on how own attitudes and beliefs are different from those of other cultures and communities. Students will evaluate what can be learned from diversity of communities and cultures.

SL Outcome 3. Civic action and reflection: Students will demonstrate independent experience and show initiative in a context of complex or multiple civic engagement activities, accompanied by reflective insights or analysis about the aims and accomplishments of one’s actions.

SL Outcome 4. Civic contexts/structures: Students will demonstrate ability and commitment to collaboratively work across and within community contexts and structures to achieve a civic aim.

Below is an excerpt from the program assessment for the BBA Management, as you can see Ethical Reasoning is one of the key learning outcomes and it learned and practiced throughout this course. Oral communication, another program outcome, is practiced in this class.

It is highly advisable that that you keep this text following the course, as APA citations are the required citation method within the Department of Management & Marketing and will be used throughout your undergraduate and, hopefully, graduate education.

Note: A student of this institution is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Student Profile and Course Agreement Survey: Students should review this Syllabus in depth and be sure they are willing to comply with all assignments and deadlines in this course. The course agreement requires students to agree to these expectations and promise that they have the computer set-up and self-discipline needed for this course. This profile/agreement is due the end of the first week of class and is worth 20 points. No assignments will be graded until your Profile and Course Agreement Survey has been submitted.
- Introductory (“Meet and Greet”) Forum: Each student will be required to post an introduction on the discussion board under “Introductions”. Your Introduction is due the end of the first week of class and is worth 20 points.
- Discussion Forum Assignments: There will be 6 assigned discussion forums. Topics for the forums will vary and could include “debates” in the text, a question exploring a portion of the text readings in-depth, a supplemental topic/current events based on a current business press article, or issues related to Service Learning. A grading rubric on the course Canvas page will show the grading criteria for each essay/discussion forum. Each one is worth 34 grading points.

- Ethical Dilemma Analysis – Scenario-based: The analysis of an ethical dilemma applying ethical decision-making process and ethical frameworks will be performed based on a given scenario (or “practice dilemma”). For this practice analysis students will select answers from multiple-choice options. This practice analysis will precede the main Ethical Dilemma Analysis cases study. Detailed instructions will be provided in class/Canvas. This scenario-based Ethical dilemma analysis will be worth 50 grading points.
- Ethical Dilemma Analysis Case Study: There will be one Ethical Dilemma Analysis assignment during the semester. It will require complex analysis of real-world organizational situations using frameworks from the textbook and assigned discussion questions. This assignment is worth 100 grading points.
*All assignments must be submitted in a Microsoft Word .doc or .docx format.
- Quizzes: There will be a quiz for each chapter in the textbook (10 total quizzes = 100 points). Each quiz will be 10 questions, worth 1 point per question. The quizzes will be accessed through Connect in Canvas.
- Exams: There will be TWO required online exams. Each exam will cover 5 text chapters and related supplemental readings, and test students’ knowledge of the key frameworks and concepts. Exams will include multiple choice, true/false, and scenario-based questions designed as a signature assignment tailored for PSLO4 assessment practice. Exams will be available over one week period online; dates are noted in the course schedule. The online exams will be timed and once started, must be completed at that time. The Chapter PowerPoint lectures slides, instructor video commentaries, glossaries, and self-quizzes are all useful study guides for the Exams. Each Exam will have 80 questions worth a total of 100 points.

SERVICE-LEARNING (SL):

- Service-learning Case Study Presentation: a case study will offer students an opportunity to identify a community need that needs to be addressed and will be worth 50 points.
- Two Service-Learning Projects (For a total of 15 hours of SL volunteering/engagement with nonprofit organization(s)): Service Learning is an interactive learning methodology that involves performing community service work while reflecting on that activity and linking it to course frameworks. Corporate social responsibility is a critical concept covered in this course. Most corporations and business firms now attribute a vital role to be involved in volunteer work in their local communities. We will “mimic” these types of volunteer projects via two required service projects during the semester.
*Volunteer work being performed for other reasons e.g., court ordered community service, or with other types of organizations, e.g., student organizations or political parties, cannot count to receive credit fulfilling the Service-Learning requirement for this course. A SL with a faith-based organization must be directed to benefit external community, e.g., soup kitchen (No proselytism related activities or ushering can receive credit for the course).

- A total of 40 grading points is available for submittal of your Service-Learning Commitment Form (20 points for each form) completed and submitted on time.
- Students will be required to complete one individual Service-Learning project of his/her choice (35 points).
- Students will also be required to participate as part of a TAMUCT group in a group SL project in the Central Texas area (65 points). Part of the group SL project is scheduled beforehand with the date provided in the course syllabus and more details provided in Canvas.
- Students who do not live in the Central Texas area and who cannot attend the group project may petition their professor to approve two individually selected projects (Points allocated based on the performed hours). Ideas for agencies that would have established relationships with the University can be found in Canvas. It is highly recommended to complete your hours at two different non-profit organizations to enrich your SL experience.
- If performed individually, students must have a verification from signed by an official staff member at their chosen agency of the volunteer hours completed (a form will be provided in Canvas for student's use).
- Reflection Journal: After completion of the 1st SL project, students will turn in a required Reflection Journal sharing their SL experience and addressing a list of questions about their service. (60 possible grading points if submitted on time).
As reflection is an essential part of service-learning, reflection after the 2nd SL project will be performed as a Discussion # 3 and shared with the class to stimulate peer-to-peer learning.
- Additional information about service learning, description of the group service-learning project, forms for requesting individual project approval, hours verification forms, and guidelines for the reflection journal will be posted on the course Canvas page according to the course schedule.

Grading Polices/Guidelines

- Individual Performance: It is vital that you are active in the course and complete all work in a professional fashion. One of the biggest issues with student success in online courses is simply not submitting work on time. You are expected to read the chapters as assigned in the syllabus as well as read or view any supplemental resources that may be found in the Module content folders for that period.
- Quality Work: All work submitted for grading shall be of upper-level quality: Depth of analysis, grammatical structure, etc.
- Identifying Submissions: Submissions must clearly identify the student and the title of the assignment.
- Submission Format: ALL written assignments must be submitted in a Microsoft Word .doc or .docx format;
Exception: SL forms must be signed and submitted as a scanned copy or a picture in a visible/readable format OR emailed from an official nonprofit's email address directly to the instructor with the student in Cc.
- Submission Style Requirements: Submissions will be in accordance with The Publication

Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed.

- Due Dates and Late Submissions: The assignment instructions and deadlines are clearly laid out in the syllabus. Though some assignments are fairly involved, you do not have more than one assignment due in any week. As such, it is expected that all work will be submitted on time, as timeliness is an important aspect of professional communications and behavior. If you encounter an issue, please let me know as soon as possible. It is much easier to discuss issues before due dates rather than after.
Late work is not accepted without a documented university accepted excuse.
- Changes to Syllabus: This syllabus serves as an instructional and study planning document. Although every effort will be made to maintain the schedule and activities presented herein, it may become necessary during the course of the semester to make changes to the syllabus. In such events, changes will be announced, and students will receive written notice as soon as possible.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

A detailed grading rubric will be available with the assignment instructions and submission locations in Canvas. Minimum points required for a specific course grade are noted on the table under Grade Computation in the next section. Minimum points required for a specific course grade will NOT be revised for any reason. There are 1000 grading points available in this class, assigned as follows:

Faculty cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar's Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed. Once you submit the completed form to the Registrar's Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Academic Integrity

Texas A&M University-Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. All academic misconduct concerns will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action. Remember that self-plagiarism (Reusing own assignments from previous courses) is also a violation of academic integrity.

For more information regarding the student conduct process, [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html].

University Writing Center

University Writing Center: Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University—Central Texas (A&M—Central Texas) is a free service open to all A&M—Central Texas students. The hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday in Warrior Hall 416 (with online tutoring available every hour as well) with satellite hours available online only Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. and Saturday 12:00-3:00 p.m.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WCOonline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor.

University Library & Archives

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 400,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 96,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place virtually through WebEx, Microsoft Teams or in-person at the library. Schedule an appointment here [https://tamuct.libcal.com/appointments/?g=6956]. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. For more information, please visit our Library website [http://tamuct.libguides.com/index].

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/bat.html]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5800.
