Objectives:

1. Apply appropriate organizational theories to institutional administration and leadership
2. Analyze the contextualized role of cultures and norms that develop within colleges and universities
3. Describe the various external factors that may influence institutional decision-making

Required Reading and Textbook(s):

Birnbaum, R. (1988). How colleges work: The cybernetics of academic organization and leadership. Jossey-Bass

Bolman, L.G. & Gallos, J.V. (2011). Reframing academic leadership. Jossey-Bass.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Requirements (additional information may be provided in the assignment description in Canvas)

1. How Colleges Work Exam - 30 points, due 7/11
2. Critical Review 30 points, due 7/11
 - a. Essay- (22.5) Students will critically analyze the Reframing Academic Leadership text. A critical book review not only concisely summarizes the book, but it also expresses an opinion or commentary on the book. The review essentially looks at what is being said, how it's being said, and then how well (in the opinion of the reviewer) the author has succeeded in doing so. It is important that the reviewer provides evidence to support their review rather than simply an unfounded opinion. APA formatting is required, and the page expectation is six to eight not counting cover and reference pages.
 - b. UWC Visit 1 – (2.5) Students will complete a virtual session with the University Writing Center emphasizing the development of the critical review. Upload a screenshot of the post-visit email provided by the tutor. The suggested topics of emphasis are the development of your thesis statement and essay outline.
 - c. UWC Visit 2 – (2.5) Students will complete a second virtual session with the University Writing Center emphasizing the development of the critical review. Upload a screenshot of the post-visit email provided by the tutor. Emphasis should likely be paid to clarity of thesis, paragraph structure, and APA formatting.
 - d. Reflection on Writing/Revision Process – (2.5) Students will reflect upon potential aspects of improvement stemming from the writing and revising process
3. Annotated Bibliography – 10 points, due 7/11. Students will submit an annotated bibliography of five articles from The Journal of Higher Education related to higher education administration/organization/leadership that were published in 2020 or later. Students should focus on developing concise summarizations. Do not simply attempt to paraphrase the abstract. APA formatting is required, and general rule of thumb is to keep each annotation between 200-250 words.

4. Leadership Interview Presentation – 30 points, due 7/25. In assigned groups, students will interview three administrative leaders at the level of assistant vice president or higher from three unique institutions in three different states. The interviews should focus both on the individual you are interviewing (i.e., leadership philosophy, managerial style) as well as questions related to the organization (i.e., governance, strategic planning, strengths, opportunities to improve). Then, students will record an 10-12 minute presentation in Teams or Studio comparing and contrasting the interviews. You should do more than simply summarize the interview; you should identify themes in the responses and ground your analysis in course content. If your presentation resembles an interview transcript (I asked, they said, I asked, they said) your grade will almost assuredly be no higher than a C.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

90-100 points=A
80-89 points= B
70-79 points= C
Less than 70 points= F

Posting of Grades

All grades will be posted to Canvas with the goal of 72 hours from the due date.

Grading Policies

No late work is accepted.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online
