Important: Pacing of 8-Week Courses

If you have taken an 8-week course before, you know that the workload is the same as that of a 16-week course, but is completed twice as fast. For this reason, I recommend that you think of this 8-week class as similar to taking two classes, since you will be completing the equivalent of two weeks' worth of work (including reading and writing) each week.

Course Description

Deals with a variety of formal cognitive mechanisms that are relevant to the knowledge and use of natural languages. Prerequisite(s): ENGL 1301.

Objectives

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

- Describe the main experimental methods and sources of data used in order to explore how the mind stores, processes, and produces language, and explain theories and models of cognitive processes involved in language storage, production, and processing.
- Identify and analyze language usage errors, develop hypotheses on their significance relevant to language storage, processing, and production, and connect your observations to researchers' analyses of linguistic data.
- Locate peer-reviewed sources that lend insight to a current topic in psycholinguistics.
- Defend your analyses of primary and secondary texts in thoughtful and well-organized essays supported by reference to and discussion of appropriate sources.

Required Textbooks

Paul Warren, Introducing Psycholinguistics, ISBN: 9780521130561

Additional readings will be made available through Library E-Reserves or on Canvas.

Course Reading Schedule

Readings (including the relevant “mini-lectures” posted to Canvas) must be completed by Friday of the week during which they are assigned, when most assignments related to the week’s reading are also due (by 11:59 PM), unless otherwise indicated. However, it is important that you set additional deadlines for yourself based on your own unique schedule and the amount of time you will require to successfully complete the week’s written assignments. I am available, over email or Teams, to discuss strategies and scheduling which will help you to be successful in the class. Weekly content will be released in four units of two weeks each, and each unit will be made available by the Friday before the unit officially begins to allow sufficient time for planning.

Term Project: Friday, July 14

Exam 2: Friday, July 28

Short Written Reflections

You will complete a total of eight short written reflections at least 400 words in length each over the course of the semester. Short Written Reflections are due at 11:59 PM on the Friday of each week they are assigned. You will receive a rubric with more information regarding how Short Written Reflections will be scored during Week 1. The Academic Integrity Quiz administered during Week 1 will also count toward the Short Written Reflections average, as will the required Introductions discussion post also due at the end of Week 1. This brings the total number of Short Written Reflections scores to ten.

Exams

The two exams will be due during Weeks 4 and 8. The exams will consist of several prompts; these prompts will be designed to test your comprehension of and ability to apply ideas introduced in unit content and assigned readings. Questions will be in short answer and short essay format. These exams will be open book and open note, but are not to be completed in collaboration with others.

Exam 1 will cover readings and topics from Units 1 & 2.

Exam 2 will cover readings and topics from Units 3 & 4.

Term Project

A prompt and rubric with details on the term project will be made available during the first week of class. The project involves researching a selected topic in psycholinguistics by locating, reading, assessing, and putting in conversation with one another 2-3 relevant peer-reviewed articles.

Instructor Availability

You are welcome to contact me with questions or comments via email (but please send emails to me via the Canvas messaging system, unless the site is down). I endeavor to answer all emails within 24 hours of receiving them, not counting weekends and holidays. Office hour meetings are available by appointment via Teams. You may request an appointment by email. I do ask that any appointment request be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired meeting time to guarantee that I have time to review and respond to them. Do not assume that the meeting will take place unless I have responded to your request, confirmed the time, and sent you a Teams invitation.

Draft Review Policy

Students often ask me whether I'll look at drafts of writing assignments and give advice on how to improve them. The answer is yes; however, students who wish for me to review an entire draft must schedule an appointment in order to discuss the paper. I will not review drafts that are emailed to me with no explanation; over email, I will limit my commentary to specific items that can be answered in a brief email response. Additionally, I will not predict the grade that a draft might receive either prior to or after revision.

Online Course Etiquette

Students are to maintain a high level of professionalism and respect when interacting with one another and the instructor, whether over email, during a virtual meeting, or on the discussion board. The same expectations for professional and respectful behavior apply online as in the face-to-face classroom. Disagreements are a normal and often productive aspect of academic discourse, and differences in viewpoint relevant to course content may be expressed and explored during discussion activities. However, participants engaged in discussion must remain respectful to all parties involved and focused on topics relevant to the activity at hand.

Late Submission Policy

Generally, I do not accept late/make-up work for assignments unless the student has missed the deadline due to an excused reason. However, I will consider granting extensions before the deadline has passed if students are facing challenges which merit one. Whenever possible, students should notify me before the assignment deadline if they believe they cannot meet it. At that time, I will determine whether an extension is appropriate and, if so, set a new deadline.

After a new deadline for the assignment is established, you must abide by this deadline or else receive a zero on the assignment. In all situations involving missed and/or extended deadlines, it is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor if any issues arise. If I do not hear from you and do not have your submission after a deadline passes, I will assume that you do not intend to turn in the assignment and will put a zero in the gradebook.

Additionally, extensions must be requested in a timely manner. If a student has not requested an extension within two calendar days (48 hours) of the deadline, the grade will remain zero unless the student can provide a reasonable explanation regarding why it was not possible to contact me sooner.

Attendance Policy

Because this is an asynchronous 100% online class, there is no set meeting time. However, students are encouraged to log in to the site daily (excluding weekends and holidays) in order to view materials, check email, and complete assignments in a timely manner.

Program Assessment Statement

To ensure the learning outcomes are met in the English Department, there is a program-wide artifact collection process. To that end, some of the projects you complete this semester may be used for programmatic assessment. Please note that all efforts will be made to keep your identity anonymous; as such, all identifying markers will be removed from your work if used for programmatic assessment. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Dr. Dunai.

Academic Accommodations

At Texas A&M University-Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to a barrier-free education. The Warrior Center for Student Success, Equity and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the university's programs, services and activities. If you believe you have a disability requiring reasonable accommodations, please contact the Office of Access and Inclusion, WH-212; or call (254) 501-5836. Any information you provide is private and confidential and will be treated as such.

Academic Integrity

Texas A&M University-Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. All academic misconduct concerns will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

For more information regarding the student conduct process, [<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html>].

If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a referral, [<https://cm.maxient.com/reporting.php?TAMUCentralTexas>].

Instructor's Note on Academic Integrity:

This course uses the 9th edition of MLA for formatting and citations. You can access the guidelines online at the Purdue Online Writing Lab \(OWL\) website:

[https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/mla_style/mla_formatting_and_style_guide/mla_formatting_and_style_guide.html].

For more information on what academic integrity is and isn't, see the Student Affairs website: [<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/academic-integrity.html>]

If you have questions about using and citing sources, please ask. I am always happy to explain how to cite sources correctly and to provide any clarification needed regarding questions of academic integrity. Assignments completed for this course are expected to cite sources properly, to only represent the work of the student who submitted it (except in cases of group work/authorized collaboration), and not to have been previously submitted for credit in a course. For some assignments, such as exams, collaboration may be explicitly prohibited, and any unauthorized collaboration during completion of these assignments would be considered violations of academic integrity standards. Violations of academic integrity standards will result in a grade of zero on the assignment in question and a report to the Office of Student Conduct. All major writing assignments will be checked for originality when they are uploaded to the assignment link.

Drop Policy

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete the Drop Request Dynamic Form through Warrior Web.

[<https://federation.ngwebsolutions.com/sp/startSSO.ping?PartnerIdpld=https://eis-prod.ec.tamuct.edu:443/samlso&SpSessionAuthnAdapterId=tamuctDF&TargetResource=https%3a%2f%2fdynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com%2fSubmit%2fStart%2f53b8369e-0502-4f36-be43-f02a4202f612>].

Faculty cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Records and Admissions Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed. Once you submit the completed form to the Records and Admissions Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Records and Admissions Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Incompletes

Incompletes are only assigned due to unexpected emergency situations that occur after the final drop date (for example, an emergency medical situation experienced by the student). If you simply find yourself overwhelmed by the semester's demands, you do not qualify for an incomplete. If you experience an emergency that you believe will prevent you from completing the semester's work before the final drop date, you are expected to drop. If you experience an unexpected emergency situation after the final drop date that you believe will prevent you from completing the semester's work, please contact me as soon as possible so that we can discuss whether you qualify for an incomplete.

The hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday with additional hours Monday through Thursday nights from 6:00-9:00 p.m. The UWC is also offering hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

A Note About Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].
