Course Description

A close study of Shakespeare's literature and language with selections from representative texts including the histories, comedies, tragedies, and/or sonnets.

This semester, we will focus specifically on reception of Shakespeare’s plays. We will explore the various ways that the plays have been experienced, understood, and responded to by readers, audiences, and spectators, past and present. We will also consider how concepts and approaches relevant to study of reception lend themselves to specific kinds of research questions and interests related to the plays.

Objectives

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

- Explore the reception of Shakespeare’s plays, taking into consideration their representations, uses, and afterlives as well as the role of audiences in responding to and interpreting them.
- Describe, distinguish between, and apply concepts and approaches associated with the study of reception in order to engage with scholarly conversations about Shakespeare’s plays.
- Investigate the scholarly conversations you intend to engage with in your essay and position your own project in relation to these conversations.
- Develop a sophisticated essay that engages with Shakespeare studies with attention to reception, taking into consideration feedback you receive during the drafting process and formal presentation of your work to your peers.

Participation

Participation in class as well as in corresponding discussion forums is not optional; this participation must be active, meaningful, and consistent in order for students to earn all possible participation points. The participation score is based on 1) active participation in course meetings (including any required conferences with the instructor, as in Week 7) as well as 2) participation in the post-meeting discussion posts (see course schedule) and completion of any other required activities (such as the essay proposal). Preparation for and participation in meetings this semester is of great importance and constitutes a form of work that is required for this course; being able to discuss assigned readings and participate in activities contributes not just to your own experience in the course, but enriches your peers’ experiences as well.
Students are allotted one “free” missed opportunity to participate over the course of the semester. A missed opportunity to participate could mean that the student 1) missed a class meeting without an excused reason, 2) attended but made no substantial contributions to discussion, or 3) neglected to complete a required discussion post or other activity or submitted a discussion post/activity that did not fulfill prompt specifications. On the second missed opportunity to participate, the student forfeits all possible participation points for the semester.

Essay (Draft 1 and 2) & Presentation
Each student will produce a 15-20-page essay that applies an approach to discourse analysis covered this semester and contributes to relevant scholarly conversations. Two drafts of the essay will be required so that students can revise their work after receiving feedback on Draft 1. During the last week of the semester, students will give presentations on their projects and engage in discussion of their own and their peers’ projects. Prompts for these assignments will be made available on Canvas.

Instructor Availability
You are welcome to contact me with questions or comments via email. I endeavor to answer all emails within 24 hours of receiving them, not counting weekends and holidays. Office hour meetings are available by appointment via Teams. You may request an appointment by email. I do ask that any appointment request be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired meeting time to guarantee that I have time to review and respond to them. Do not assume that the meeting will take place unless I have responded to your request, confirmed the time, and sent you a Teams invitation.

Draft Review Policy
Students often ask me whether I’ll look at drafts of writing assignments and give advice on how to improve them. The answer is yes; however, students who wish for me to review an entire draft must schedule an appointment in order to discuss the paper. I will not review drafts that are emailed to me with no explanation; over email, I will limit my commentary to specific items that can be answered in a brief email response. Additionally, I will not predict the grade that a draft might receive either prior to or after revision.

Online Course Etiquette
Students are to maintain a high level of professionalism and respect when interacting with one another and the instructor, whether over email, during a virtual meeting, or on the discussion board. The same expectations for professional and respectful behavior apply online as in the face-to-face classroom. Disagreements are a normal and often productive aspect of academic discourse, and differences in viewpoint relevant to course content may be expressed and explored during discussion activities. However, participants engaged in discussion must remain respectful to all parties involved and focused on topics relevant to the activity at hand.

Late Submission Policy
Generally, I do not accept late/make-up work for assignments unless the student has missed the deadline due to an excused reason. However, I will consider granting extensions before the deadline has passed if students are facing challenges which merit one. Whenever possible, students should notify me before the assignment deadline if they believe they cannot meet it. At that time, I will determine whether an extension is appropriate and, if so, set a new deadline.

After a new deadline for the assignment is established, you must abide by this deadline or else receive a zero on the assignment. In all situations involving missed and/or extended deadlines, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor if any issues arise. If I do not hear from you and do not have your submission after a deadline passes, I will assume that you do not intend to turn in the assignment and will put a zero in the gradebook.

Additionally, extensions must be requested in a timely manner. If a student has not requested an extension within two calendar days (48 hours) of the deadline, the grade will remain zero unless the student can provide a reasonable explanation regarding why it was not possible to contact me sooner.

Attendance Policy
This semester will include weekly meetings over the Teams application in Canvas. Because class meetings this semester will be light on lecture and heavy on activity and discussion, and because graduate students are particularly responsible for contributing to the productivity of class meetings, attendance is of utmost importance (see the Participation section of the syllabus). For that reason, if you need to miss a class meeting due to a reason you believe would be excused, you should notify me as soon as possible, preferably before the meeting that would be missed. As stated in the Participation section, attendance means more than just logging into a weekly course meeting: students who do not maintain an active presence in meetings by participating in conversations and making meaningful contributions will be counted as absent.

Program Assessment Statement
To ensure the learning outcomes are met in the English Department, there is a program-wide artifact collection process. To that end, some of the projects you complete this semester may be used for programmatic assessment. Please note that all efforts will be made to keep your

Academic Integrity
Texas A&M University-Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. All academic misconduct concerns will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

For more information regarding the student conduct process, [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html].

If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a referral, [https://cm.maxient.com/reporting.php?TAMUCentralTexas].

Instructor’s Note on Academic Integrity:
This course uses the 9th edition of MLA for formatting and citations. You can access the guidelines online at the Purdue Online Writing Lab (OWL) website: [https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/mla_style/mla_formatting_and_style_guide/mla_formatting_and_style_guide.html].

For more information on what academic integrity is and isn’t, see the Student Affairs website: [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/academic-integrity.html]

If you have questions about using and citing sources, please ask. I am always happy to explain how to cite sources correctly and to provide any clarification needed regarding questions of academic integrity. Assignments completed for this course are expected to cite sources properly, to only represent the work of the student who submitted it (except in cases of group work/authorized collaboration), and not to have been previously submitted for credit in a course. For some assignments, such as exams, collaboration may be explicitly prohibited, and any unauthorized collaboration during completion of these assignments would be considered violations of academic integrity standards. Violations of academic integrity standards will result in a grade of zero on the assignment in question and a report to the Office of Student Conduct.
All major writing assignments will be checked for originality when they are uploaded to the assignment link.

Drop Policy

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete the Drop Request Dynamic Form through Warrior Web.

Faculty cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Records and Admissions Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed. Once you submit the completed form to the Records and Admissions Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Records and Admissions Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Incompletes

Incompletes are only assigned due to unexpected emergency situations that occur after the final drop date (for example, an emergency medical situation experienced by the student). If you simply find yourself overwhelmed by the semester’s demands, you do not qualify for an incomplete. If you experience an emergency that you believe will prevent you from completing the semester’s work before the final drop date, you are expected to drop. If you experience an unexpected emergency situation after the final drop date that you believe will prevent you from completing the semester’s work, please contact me as soon as possible so that we can discuss whether you qualify for an incomplete.

A Note About Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].
