Do not send Canvas messages/emails about things stated in the syllabus/guidelines or where things are located on Canvas unless you are requesting clarification or additional information.

STUDENT-PROFESSOR INTERACTION

Students may speak with me via Canvas Inbox or by appointment. I will answer (most) messages within 24 hours, Monday through Friday. Students who would like to meet with me may do so by appointment via WebEx. For appointments the student and I must confirm the date and time via Canvas Inbox.

PARTICIPATION POLICIES

Participation will not count towards your grade. However, it is in your best interest to regularly check Canvas and complete all the assignments. If you do not your grade is likely to suffer. Participation will aid in understanding the material, which can ultimately improve your grade. If you have a question, I strongly suggest you send me a course message via Canvas or make an appointment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Grading Policies

The assignments in this course have flexible deadlines (see the course schedule). As such, there are no late penalties. You are not required to meet these flexible deadlines, though it is in your best interest to do so. However, all assignments must be submitted via the appropriate Canvas link by the end of the semester: Friday, July 28 at 11:59p.

Reading Assignments

The reading assignments are taken from the required textbook and other resources uploaded to Canvas. It is important to have the textbook when the course begins so you can keep up with the assigned readings. I recommend that you purchase the book as soon as possible so you are adequately prepared for the course. Reading assignments should be completed by the date listed on the Course Schedule. But I suggest that you reread them after as well.

Weekly Quizzes (50 points each)

There will be seven quizzes worth 50 points each (one per week). These quizzes will be multiple choice and true/false. Students are allowed one hour to complete the quiz and one attempt. The quiz for each week will be available Monday at 12:00a and the recommended deadline to complete it is by the end of the week, Sunday at 11:59p. However, if you need more time, I will allow you to submit it later without a late penalty. It is in your best interest to submit it by the recommended Sunday deadline, as this will allow you more time to review how you did, which will aid in your studying. The latest I will accept the quizzes is Friday, July 28 at 11:59p.

The answers to the quizzes will not be displayed after they are graded. If you would like feedback on your quizzes, feel free to make an appointment to speak to me via WebEx.

Note: The quizzes are not group activities and may not be taken together. Students suspected of working together on the quizzes will receive a zero on the quiz for which it's suspected and be reported to the Office of Student Conduct for violating academic integrity.

Final Exam (150 points)

The final exam will review all the material covered during the course. It will be multiple choice and true/false. You will have 2 hours to complete the exam and one attempt. The exam will be available all semester and must be completed by Friday, July 28 at 11:59p. Late submissions and make-ups will not be accepted.

The hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday with additional hours Monday through Thursday nights from 6:00-9:00 p.m. The UWC is also offering hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WOnline [<https://tamuct.mywconline.com/>]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor.

students.html]. If you would like to read more about these requirements and guidelines online, please visit the website [<http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.pdf>].

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 specifically prohibits discrimination against a student based on pregnancy, childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, or recovery from any of these conditions [<https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.html>].

Students experiencing any form of discrimination due to any of these conditions are encouraged to reach out to the Title IX Coordinator, 254.519.5716, titleix@tamuct.edu, Founders Hall 317B, or the Associate Dean of Student Affairs, 254.501.5909, Warrior Hall 105.out assistance. Students may also contact the University's Title IX Coordinator.

TITLE IX RIGHTS AND REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

A&M-Central Texas is committed to creating a safe and open learning environment for all students. If you or another student has experienced any form of gender discrimination or sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and/or sex-based stalking, help and support are available. Our university strongly encourages all members of our campus community to report incidents and seek support for gender discrimination and sexual misconduct through the Title IX Office. You may contact the Title IX Office at 254.519.5716, titleix@tamuct.edu, Founders Hall 317B, or learn more by visiting the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html>].

Please be aware that that under Title IX, Texas Senate Bill 212, and System Regulation 08.01.01, [<https://policies.tamus.edu/08-01-01.pdf>] all university employees are mandated reporters and are required to disclose information about suspected or alleged violations as listed above and defined in System Regulation 08.01.01. If the Title IX Office receives information about an incident, they will reach out to offer information about resources, rights, and procedural options as a member of the campus community. Although I have an obligation to report, you will, in most cases, control how your case will be handled. When working with the Title IX Office you will have access to resources and accommodations but also have the opportunity to express if you wish to move forward with an investigation. Our goal is to make sure you are aware of the options available to you as a student. Community members are not required to respond to this outreach.

If you or another student wishes to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact the Student Wellness &

Counseling Center, [<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-counseling.html>], 254.501.5955, or swacc@tamuct.edu, located in Warrior Hall Room 207L or the Student Support Advocate, 254.501.5978 or ssa@tamuct.edu, located in founder Hall Room 317D.

A NOTE ABOUT SEXUAL VIOLENCE AT A&M-CENTRAL TEXAS

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html>].

BEHAVIORAL INTERVENTION

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [<https://cm.maxient.com/reporting.php?TAMUCentralTexas>].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [<https://www.tamuct.edu/bit>]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.
