

Susan Humiston, Ed.D.

My personal qualifications and professional experiences enable me to find the means to weave stakeholders together for mutual understanding and purpose. I strive to be a proactive leader dedicated to accomplishing defined goals with adaptive processes to navigate unique educational systems.

HUMISTON CONSULTING, LLC:

- 2014-Current: Executive Coaching Services (7 principals with Temple, Belton and Royal ISDs)
- 2018-2019: Math Innovation Zone Project Director, Temple ISD (5 campuses)
- 2012-2013: Mentor Program Coordinator, Temple ISD (14 principals/39 mentees/27 mentors)
- 2011-2018: Professional Service Provider (PSP) for Texas Education Agency (19 principals/campuses)
- February 2011: Established Humiston Consulting, LLC to provide educational consulting post retirement

HIGHER-EDUCATION EXPERIENCES (taught 30 principal-preparation courses 2007-2016):

- August 2022-Current: EPP Field Supervisor for Texas A & M University-Central Texas
- 2015-2016: Assistant Professor for Texas A & M University-Central Texas
- 2007-2015: Adjunct Professor for Tarleton University and Texas A & M University-Central Texas
- 2011-2016: College of Education Advisory Council, The University of Texas at Austin

PUBLIC-EDUCATION EXPERIENCES:

- June 2011: Retired from public education
- 2006-2011: Killeen ISD, Executive Instructional Leader, supervised four (4) comprehensive high schools, Career and Technology, the high school and middle school DAEPs, and Bell County JJAEP
- 2003-2006: Temple ISD, Senior Director of Curriculum and Instruction (K-12)
- 2000-2003: Midway ISD, Director of Secondary Curriculum (7-12)
- 1996-2000: Belton ISD, Belton High School (4A/5A) Principal
- 1994-1996: Belton ISD, Belton High School, Assistant Principal
- 1989-1994: Temple ISD, Bonham Middle School, 7th Grade Gifted and Talented English Teacher
- 1985-1989: Fort Worth ISD, A.M. Pate Elementary, Writing Lab Teacher
- 1981-1983: Birdville ISD, Richland High School, English Teacher and 4A Tennis Coach

CERTIFICATIONS:

- 2007 Doctor of Education, Tarleton State University
- 2002 Superintendent Certification (renews 3.31.26), Tarleton State University
- 1994 Master of Education, The University of Texas at Austin
- 1981 Bachelor of Science, The University of Texas at Austin
- Lifetime teaching certifications include English, Speech Communication, and Physical Education
- Coaching certifications include T-TESS Certified Appraiser and Trainer-of-Trainers, Field Supervisor Observation Coach, and Jim Knight Instructional Coaching Institute

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS:

- 2014-Current: Humiston Honey Farm Beekeeper
- 2015-Current: Antiques Dealer at Village Mill Antiques and Salado Antique Mall, Salado, TX
- 2018-Current: Tablerock Scholarship Committee