

Felicia Juliano

I hope to transfer the skills I developed in building healthy tutor-student relationships into healthy teacher-student relationships as I continue to grow in my field as both a scholar and teacher.

EXPERIENCE

FALL 2016– FALL 2018

WRITING TUTOR, TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY CENTRAL TEXAS

- Responsible for completing both initial and continuing training
- Responsible for holding tutoring sessions ranging between 30 minutes to an hour
- Responsible for building and maintaining professional relationships with students

FALL 2018 – PRESENT

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR—WRITING CENTER, UNIVERSITY OF MARY HARDIN-BAYLOR

- Responsible for hiring and training all employed tutors and managing their schedules
- Responsible for continuing education through conference attendance
- Responsible for building and maintaining professional relationships with faculty

EDUCATION

MAY 2018

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN ENGLISH, TEXAS A&M CENTRAL TEXAS

- GPA 3.9
- Recipient of the Outstanding Undergraduate Student in English award

MAY 2022

MASTER OF ARTS IN ENGLISH, TEXAS A&M CENTRAL TEXAS

- GPA 4.0
- Recipient of the Outstanding Graduate Student in English award

SKILLS

- Proficient in Microsoft Word
- Proficient in PowerPoint
- Proficient in Excel
- Working knowledge of Google Docs

PUBLICATIONS

- Featured in multiple editions of The Lookout, published through Texas A&M Central Texas
- “‘There’s Got to Be Something Else I can Do!’ Confronting Perceptions, Assumptions, and Dangerous Ideals Regarding Writing Center Required Visits” (Thesis), 2022.