

AMANDA M. DYCUS

Beck Family Heritage Hall; 1001 Leadership Place; Killeen, Texas 76549 | 254-501-5154 | ADYCUS@TAMUCT.EDU

EDUCATION

University of Mary Hardin-Baylor

Master of Science in Nursing Education
2019

August 2017 – May

East Texas Baptist University

Bachelor of Science in Nursing 2000

August 1996 – May

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION

Registered Nurse, July 2000 – Present

Basic Life Support (BLS), 1998 – Present

Neonatal Resuscitation Program (NRP), 2015 – Present

Oncology Certified Nurse (OCN), 2003 – 2012

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Mary Hardin-Baylor

August 2019 - present

Mayborn College of Health Sciences - School of Nursing

Assistant Professor of Nursing

Have served as a clinical instructor for Novice I students for Healthcare Delivery I, classroom instructor (Global Perspectives in Healthcare) for Advance Beginner I students, Freshmen Seminar leader,

A representative on the Nursing Student Advisory Committee, and a representative on the Faculty Development Committee. Currently serving as an Assistant Professor teaching Global Perspectives in Healthcare, Clinical instruction for Immersion students, Chair of the Nursing Student Advisory Committee, Member of the APR Committee, and Freshmen Seminar instructor.

University of Mary Hardin-Baylor

College of Nursing

Adjunct Clinical Instructor

January 2017 – May 2019

Served as a clinical instructor for Novice I and Advanced Beginner II nursing students in Medical-Surgical Nursing and Immersion Clinicals

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Baylor Scott and White Medical Center

September 2001 - present

Lactation Nurse Consultant

April 2015 - present

Provide lactation care to moms and infants. Work on the postpartum unit as needed providing postpartum care to moms and infants.

Patient Advisory NurseMarch 2012 - April 2015

Worked as a telephone triage nurse for the patients served by Baylor Scott and White.

Oncology Research Nurse ManagerMarch 2009 - March 2012

Oversaw a staff of 15 research coordinators and research nurses – scheduling, time management, evaluations, counseling, budgeting, allocation of financial resources, etc. Responsible for management of CCOP grant. Worked with pharmaceutical companies to bring their studies to our facility. Worked closely with physicians to ensure that their studies were being run efficiently and within budget constraints. Provided care to patients who were participants in our phase I research studies.

Hospice On-Call NurseJuly 2008 - March 2009

Responsible for providing emergent care to terminal patients and their families after hours, including crisis care and care during the death process.

Staff Nurse – 8 NORTHSeptember 2007 - July 2008

Worked nights as a staff nurse providing care to hematology, oncology, surgical, and stem cell transplant patient. Served as preceptor and relief charge nurse.

Clinical Research NurseOctober 2005 - September 2007

Data coordination and collection for Phase 1 - 4 pharmaceutical and investigator-initiated oncology trials. Evaluation of new research protocols for the feasibility of conduct at the site. Enrolling patients and coordinating their care onto Phase 1-4 studies and Cooperative group studies. Providing orientation and education to new nurses. Communication with pharmaceutical companies while working on their trials. Writing budgets for new studies.

Oncology Nurse ClinicianJuly 2002 - October 2005

Provided care to the Oncology and Hematology patient. Served as a clinician to the physicians in the Hematology and Oncology clinic. Administered chemotherapy. Charge Nurse in Treatment Room for one and a half years. Responsibilities included scheduling nurses, writing and updating policies, scheduling patients in the treatment room, and overseeing the daily activities of the nurses and patients in the treatment room. Served as a resource to new nurses. Taught chemotherapy and biotherapy course to fellow oncology nurses.

Oncology Staff Nurse – 6 EastSeptember 2001 - July 2002

Worked evenings as a staff nurse providing care to the oncology patient.

Good Shepherd Medical CenterOncology Staff Nurse Intern and Staff Nurse*June 1999 - September 2001

Worked nights as a nurse intern and then staff nurse providing care to the oncology and medical/surgical patient.

LANGUAGES

English

VOLUNTEER/SERVICE

Temple Bible Church

Foster Love

Feed My Sheep

Temple Wildflower Guild – Junior Cotillion