

Master of Social Work (MSW) Course Rotation

Generalist curriculum

Students in the 60-credit-hour pathway complete the following generalist courses.

Semester 1

- SOWK 5301 — Introduction to the Social Work Profession, Ethics and Skills
- SOWK 5302 — Culturally Grounded Social Work
- SOWK 5304 — Social Welfare: Social, Economic and Environmental Contexts
- SOWK 5305 — Generalist Practice I: Individuals and Families
- SOWK 5384 — Field Instruction I

Semester 2

- SOWK 5310 — Social Work Practice Research Methods and Analysis
- SOWK 5307 — Contexts of Social Work Practice
- SOWK 5312 — Generalist Practice II: Groups
- SOWK 5315 — Generalist Practice III: Organizations and Communities
- SOWK 5385 — Field Instruction II

Advanced generalist specialization

Students in both pathways complete the advanced generalist specialization.

Specialization Semester 1

- SOWK 5320 — Supervision and Administration
- SOWK 5317 — Social Work Leadership
- SOWK 5325 — Advanced Generalist Practice I: Micro Practice
- SOWK 5335 — Advanced Generalist Practice II: Mezzo and Macro Practice
- Social Work elective

Specialization Semester 2

- SOWK 5330 — Practice Evaluation
- Social Work elective
- SOWK 5985 — Field Instruction III

Course offerings, sequencing and titles are subject to change. Students should consult the current University Catalog and their academic advisor before registering.

Field education

Field education allows students to apply classroom learning in a supervised professional setting. Across the curriculum, students complete field instruction courses that connect social work knowledge, values, ethics and competencies with practice.

Specialized practice courses and the final field instruction experience must be completed through A&M–Central Texas